CAPTURING TIME

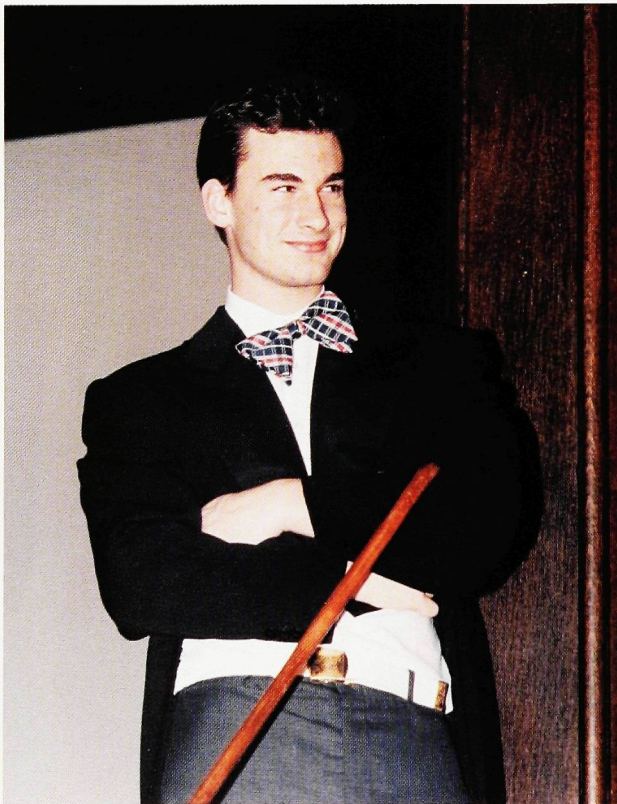

Bishop's College School is one hundred and fifty years old. When a place is as current and alive as the school is, it's easy to forget the simple roots and humble beginnings - from its "steam-boat" home to Moulton Hill. It's the hectic pace and vibrant character of life at B.C.S. that leaves little time for lingering on the past as we race into the future. Time. That's what this issue of the magazine is dedicated. And what is a very scarce commodity at the school. The essence of the book is to capture 1986-87 through word and image for posterity and, most of all, the people who 'did time' (so to speak). Often when we think of the school we can only imagine our B.C.S. Yet as every two people offer different things to the school so does each year. To allow for a successful view of this year we have delved back in time (and into the archives) to uncover some of the history which has given B.C.S its rich tradition. We are part of the continuous circle and history which has us moving forward with such a pace that we have found it necessary to put many events to paper in 'time-line form', lest they be held only in the backs of some minds and not celebrated and remembered as most of them should be. Thus, this year's book is a record of both our distant past and the energies of this year. In our efforts to capture the year we have lingered over some areas such as: the graduates, the houses, sports, and those special times that make it all worthwhile. Thus it is the hope of this years staff to encapsulate this 150th year for you.

GOOD TIMES

Life at B.C.S.

time1, n. 1 Duration, continued existence; progress of this viewed as affecting persons or things.
good, a. 1 Having the right qualities.

Put these two words and definitions together and we have what equals a common occurrence at B.C.S. Good Times often happen when you least expect them: a well earned victory on the sports field or a funny incident between friends. As important as any structured school event good times are most often seen in a spontaneous smile. It is the combination of the right qualities which progresses into, quite simply, fun.

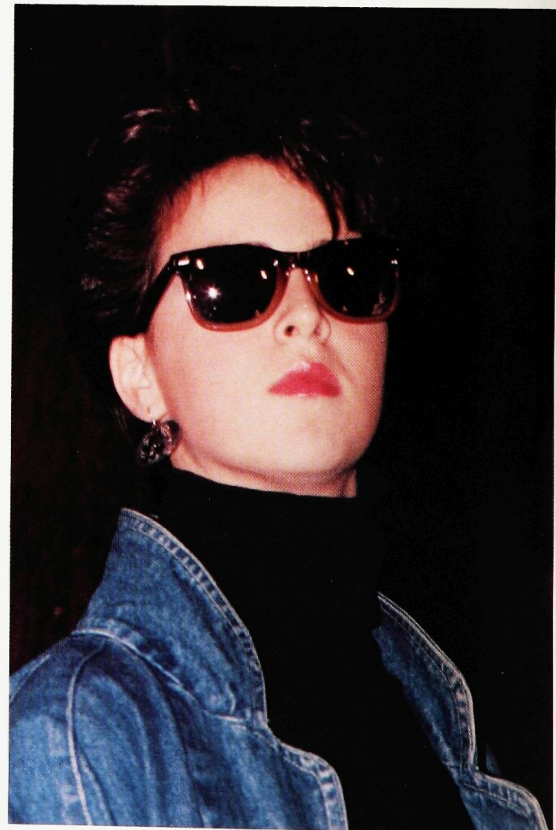

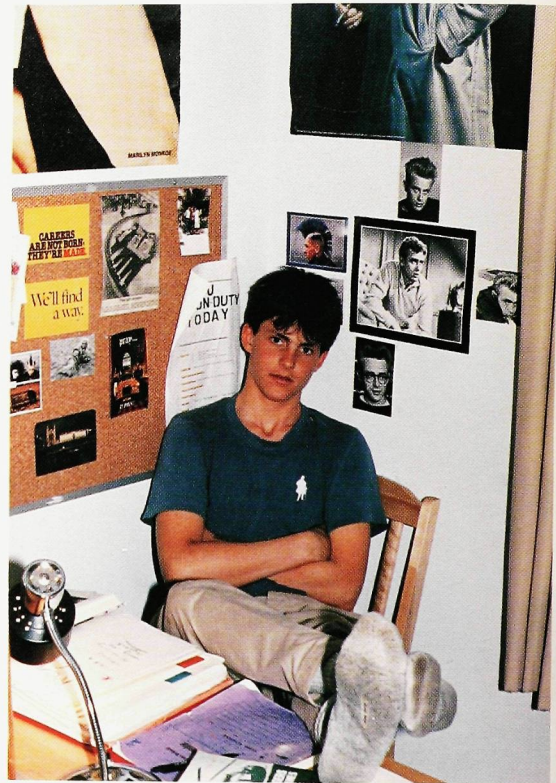

LIFELINE

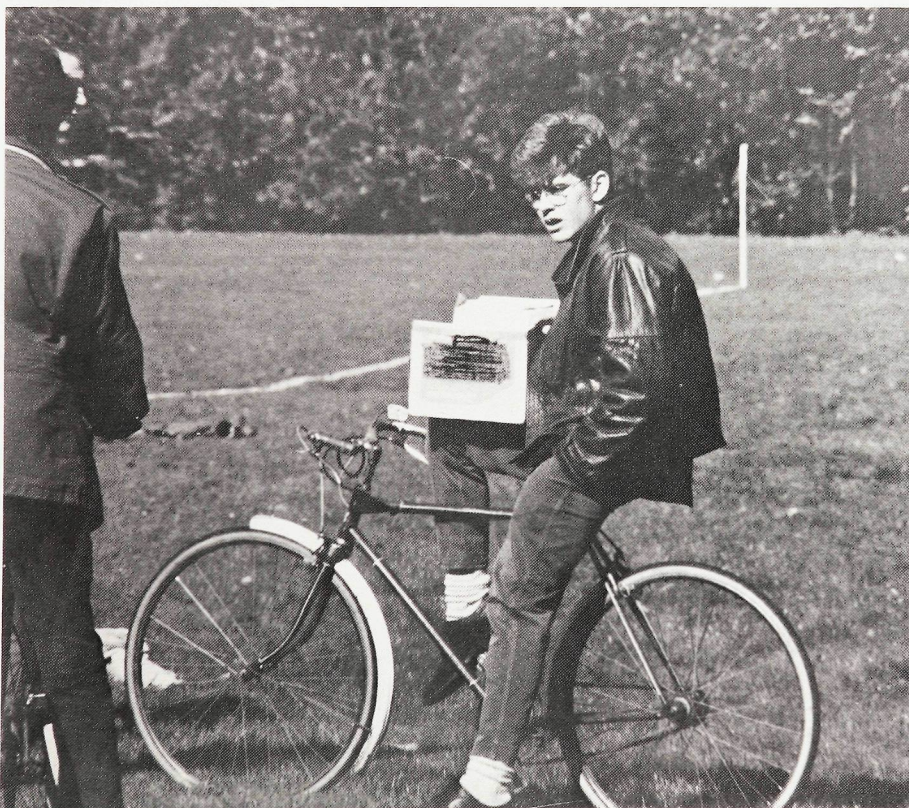

What would one be without friendship? Lost! There are some who have been hurt, and shut themselves off, they try to be islands. But what would friendship be if there was never any pain? It wouldn't be real. A friend is the most important thing to have. You share the laughter, and the tears; you feel a sense of support in times of need. A friend is someone who loves the goodness in you, and accepts your faults even though they may never understand the subtle differences. When two people become very close, they begin to see things in the same way; it is as if their brains become synchronized, and one could almost blurt out what the other is thinking, or finish a sentence. Knowing each other so intimately that each thought, emotion or dream is shared, that is friendship.

Julie Mahfood

PASSING TIME

A common B.C.S. occurrence is the countdown from break to break, yet during our time here, there's much more to do than strike dates off a calendar. We have a hectic schedule of commitment and classes. But during our free time . . . there are a lot of things to do. Whether it be watching a football game, going into town or socializing in center hall. All of these things lead to the atmosphere and feeling of B.C.S. which makes it much more than an institution of books and buildings. The ways that we 'pass time' differ from person to person yet we can all feel confident that it is not merely passing time but making times.

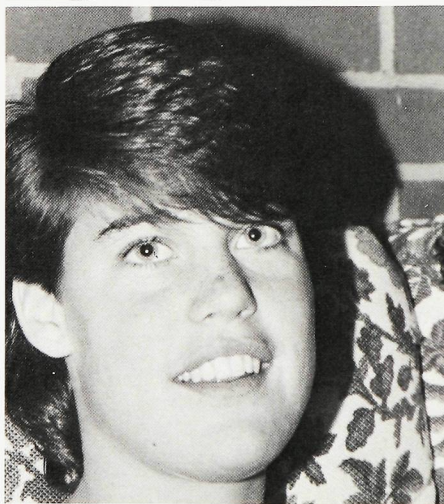

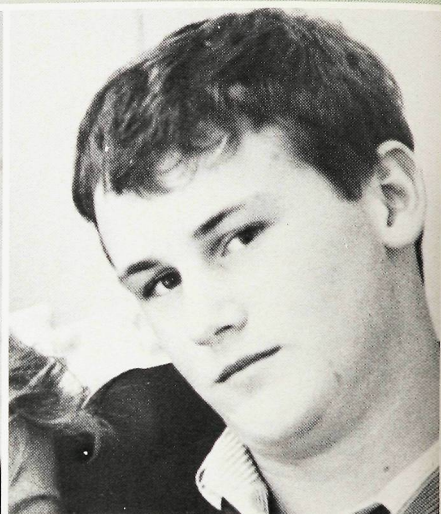

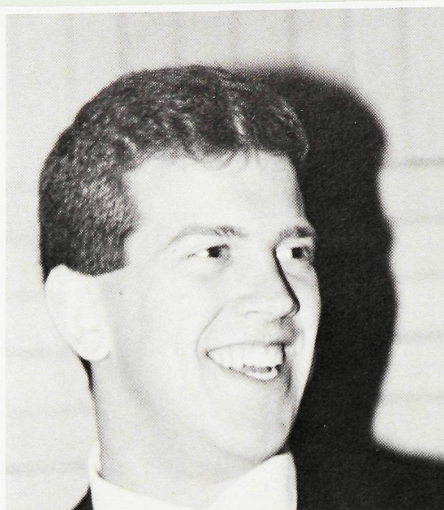

WATCHING YOU

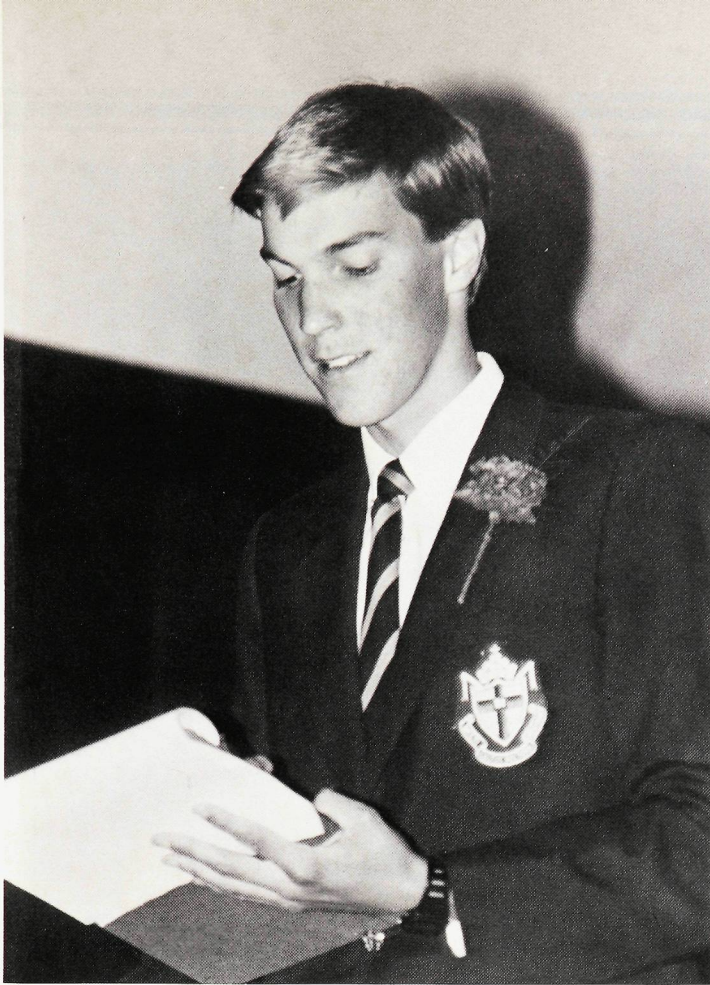

The Prefects

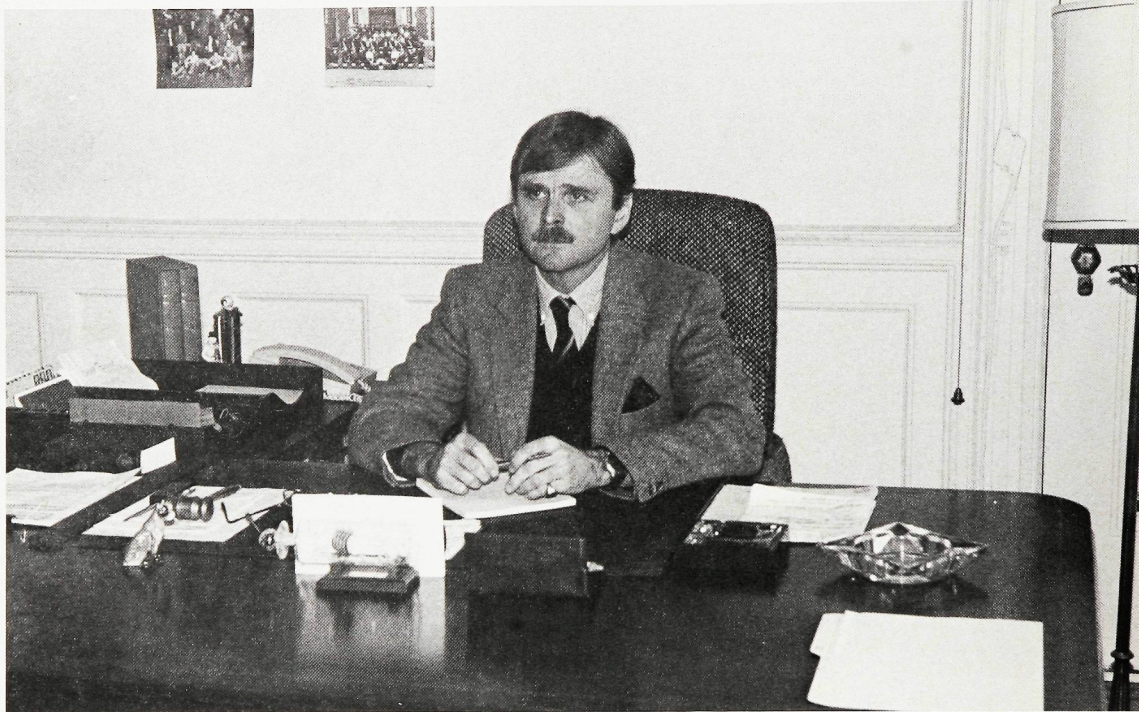

Time flies when you're having fun. Obviously we are having a good time, but this has been combined with much hard work. Our small room, which is snugly occupied by the eleven of us, is crammed with memories: the mad scientists, "$25,000 Pyramid" and dreams of painting the room once we tidy up. We are a closely-knit group and we get the job done in our own unique style, always working together. Thank you everyone, for making this the best of all my years at B.C.S. Let's finish the race just as we started, with a BANG! Best of luck to all of you next year.

Love,
Fraz

THE HEADMASTER'S DIARY

When the yearbook staff asked me to write this article, they very kindly suggested I do it "when you find some spare time." That was in November! It is now mid January, and, under pressure from two determined and demanding yearbook staff, I am finally putting pen to paper. Time at BCS has a way of disappearing, or at least of moving on at an alarming rate. This can be a good thing, since time that drags on can be very dispiriting. But it can also be a dangerous thing if we find ourselves so caught up in the tempo of what we are doing that we feel we can't take the time to stop, look, and listen, and to ask questions. This year we have been constantly reminded that this is the one hundredth and fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the school. Yet how many of us have taken the time to consider what that means? How many of us have asked about the portraits in Ross Hall, or why it is called Ross Hall? How many of us have really looked at the plaques in the Ante Chapel and asked about their significance? How many of us have wondered about the names of the various houses or the Pattison Science Building and the stories of dedication and commitment that lie behind those names? Who was Stuart of the Stuart Steps? And where are the Stuart Steps? What does the plaque on The Chapel say, and why was The Chapel named after St. Martin? The Malcolm S. Grant Field? Where is it, and who was Malcolm "Curly" Grant? Why is the library named after Peter Holt? Some of you - a few - when asked these questions would say "who cares." The majority, however, would plead lack of time; "I wondered about that but I never had time to find out." At BCS, tomorrow becomes next week, which becomes next month, which becomes next year all too quickly, and before we know it, a career at BCS is over. Many of you will be on hand to celebrate the two hundredth anniversary of the school in 2036-37. Between now and then I hope you will have found the time to stop, look, listen, and to enjoy, and that you won't reach the autumn of your lives regretting time wasted, badly used, and with answers unknown because of questions unasked.

David A.G. Cruickshank, M.A.

TIME

Tradition is formed by time.

It is established, adapted, refined and if worthy, retained. Sometimes it is abandoned or replaced, but in the long run the traditions with purpose, reason and sometimes humour withstand the tests of time. And so it is with B.C.S.. The traditions of respect for each other, commitment to achievement and the education of individuals are constant and viable.

People are the reason, the only reason, that B.C.S. has flourished for one hundred and fifty years, and you are now part of the history that has seen so much development, change and expansion. During your time at B.C.S. you will most certainly be a part of continuing tradition and you may in fact be responsible for establishing new traditions. Time will tell how much you cherish and fall back on those experiences during your life. That will be your commitment. The School knows its commitment. It is to you, with your multiple approaches to living and learning in this challenging environment. B.C.S..

With best wishes to you all,

BACK IN TIME

histry of BCS

150th anniversary.

1836 Nostalgia 1986

I am the muted voice of Bishop's College School.
Long silent through countless quiet years of searing summer heat, and dormant northern cold.
Now, through the kindness of a friend,
at last, my ancient story can be told.

For those who know not who I am,
Or how I've borned the ravages of
time;
I'll tell you now, my ancient tale,
a story, true and fine.

I am the house, high on a southern favoured hill,
Where learned men
for countless years have shared their wisdom,
With practiced prudence.
I have housed these men of dedicated purpose'
and a touch of Jurisprudence
from summer's burning heat'
and winter's icy claw,
with their myriads of fledging students.

My bodies brick with mortar hold'
no secret is my age,
admittedly, I'm one hundred and fifty old
And pride demands
I stand erect,
to tell my tale, In respect.

For many happy years
I've listened to the sweetest sounds of countless students' tramping feet,
and learned to love and classify
Each fledging youthful pair of shoes, which encouraged my old heart to beat.

Some came bold and strong
With assurance confidence brings;
some walked with cautious timidity,
as hummingbirds on new-found wings.

Some moved with aimless wander;
some glide with re-assuring step,
Some drag with lonely hesitating gait;
I know that these, last night had wept.

But through, not one was just the same, as snowflakes magic forms, or drops of summer rain;
like speeding arrows from some
phantom bow,

I've watched them come,
and wept when they,
with reluctance go.

Some came to me in brightest light,
some came to learn from the darkest night.
I healed their wounds,
and set them on the paths to fame,
my record stands;
the proof . . . ; the names.

Most left transformed from boys to men brimmed with all the knowledge kind wise men could instill, into open youthful, eager minds
did their knowledge freely spill.

Although I'm anchored
upon this oftly sacred hill,
my children gone, scattered' round,
I hear them yet; I hear them still.
it's guys and dolls.

The girls add something to my "raison
etre",
to me they're fun;
something great!
Assuredly, they'll take their place of honour

amidst the ancient past,
History will record, I'm sure that too . . . ,
female contributions tend to last.

I am the voice of BCS
and I'll be here for many future years.
Upon this hill
to point the way . . . , towards the right,
through brightest shining days,
or darkest frightening night;
for mankind's eager sparkling youth;
I'll be here for those alone,
who aim to seek the truth.

HISTORY

1836-1986

A journey through 150 years of evolution. That is what BCS is all about. It is a tale told by a family who has survived the generations it took to build BCS. The small Lennoxville School, founded by the Reverend Doolittle, is still a part of the school. Later the new building, across the river, had "LS" carved on the outside of every door handle, in 1917, because during this time the name of the school was 'Lennoxville School'; not B.C.S.

A young boy attended this school which held a maximum of twenty boys. As the school expanded, it took on a new location (mentioned above) and with it an older brother attended the school. With the threat of war, the school pressed for a cadet corps, which the young man entered. There were no injuries except for a 'cow' so the story is told; passed down by 'word of mouth' to future generations. The school lived on its normal routine until the Boer War. (Few injuries) Later on, Bishop's boys were sent to the front to fight in the First World War. The two brothers went. Bishop's losses were too numerous. One brother came back to tell his many stories, the other is a name on the Old Boys' plaque. The war was followed by the depression. Though the school went through hard times it survived. The young boy from BCS who had been sent to the first world war was now faced with the reality of yet another war and forced to send his oldest son. He too can only be remembered on the Old Boys' plaque.

It was next a time which was very good for the school, with new activities and new sports to occupy the boy's thirst for new challenges. The campus grew and again it was time for another change. It was all about girls! Compton had to close its doors. There was talk against girls at BCS. Were the Bishop's boys threatened by the Compton girls? In 1972, girls came to BCS to 'intrude' on the boys' way of life and what a change it was!

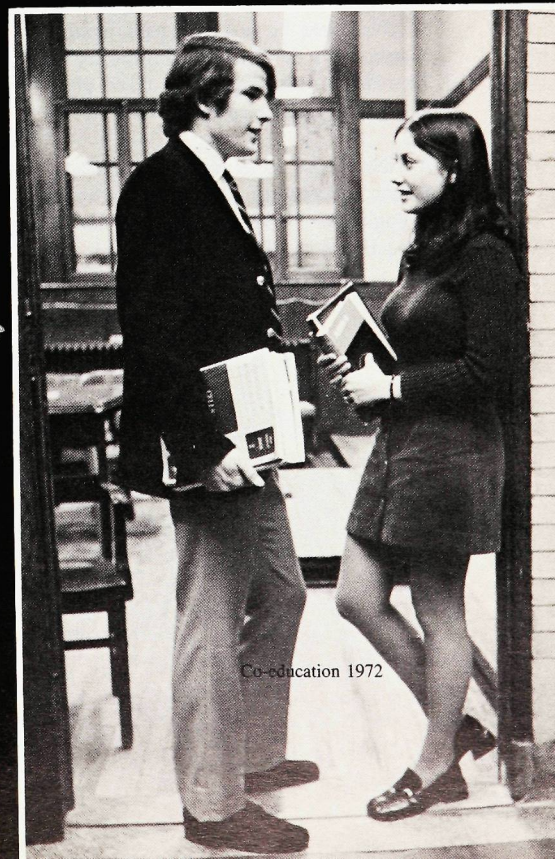

Changes can be good or bad. Evidently this one was good. You only have to look at the BCS of today . . . The forth generation, girl from Compton and boy from Bishop's are now older. They can be seen at most BCS reunions listening and looking at the BCS of today with pride.

THE CADET CORPS

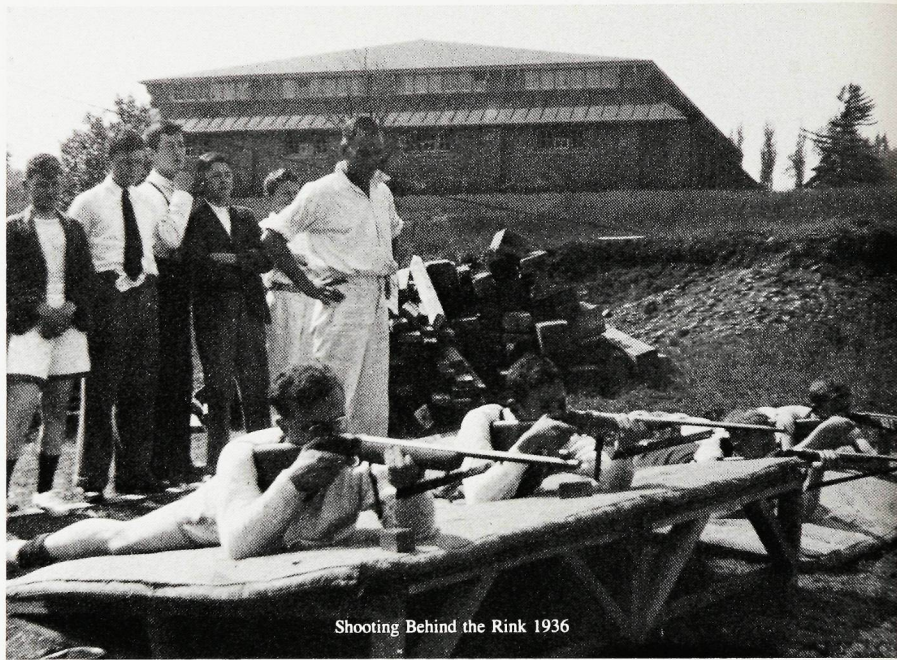

It was because of the oncoming threat of an American Civil War, to British North America in 1861, that Captain C. Rawson introduced the idea and performed the necessary steps to establish a cadet corps within the school. Lennoxville was in a vulnerable position due to the railways (built in 1851) and Canadian-American boundaries. A state of doubt began to grow within the school; which increased the demand for a cadet corps.

The corps was founded under the condition that the cadet training would not interfere with important duties and activities within the school and under such restriction that the rector was satisfied.

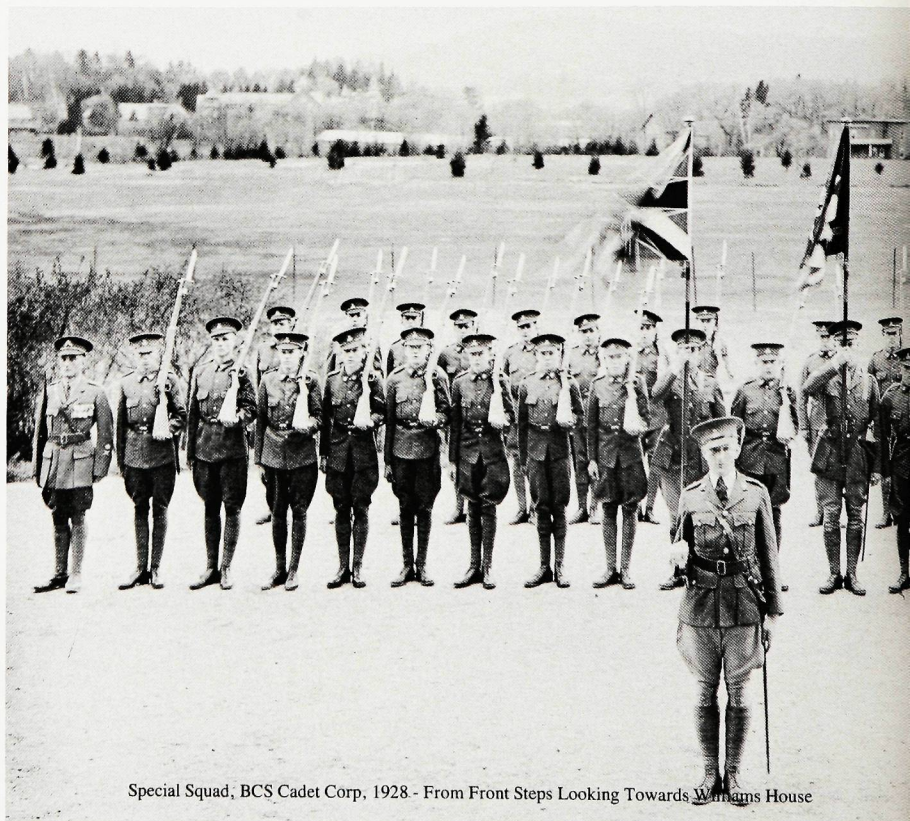

Over the past seventy-five years, there have been several incidents concerning the corps. One of them involved a group of boys who would scare the guards by not answering to their call. The solution to this 'nuisance' ordered by the Captain was, "If they don't answer, run them through." There is also the "cow" incident where a trigger-happy guard wounded a cow thinking it was a Fenian. This has become a favourite amongst the Old Boys.

Presently, the whole student body is involved in the cadet corps. Changes have occurred over the past two years, moving cadets from the traditional Monday to Thursdays. This change has taken place in order to include cadet activities.

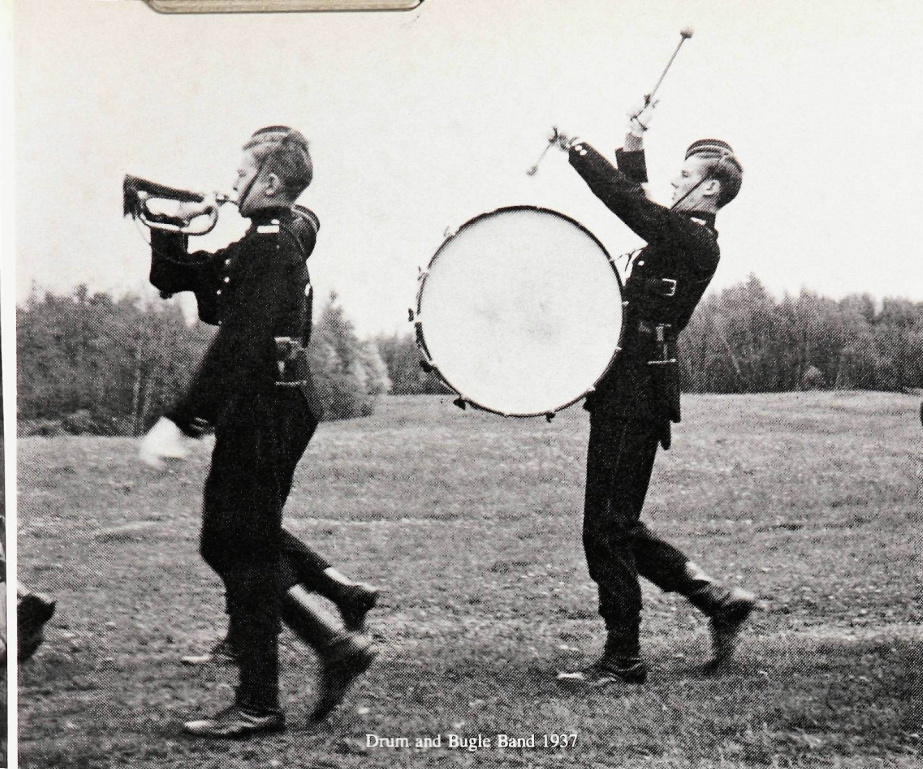

As the oldest cadet corps in Canada, Bishop's continues to gain recognition through its well performed annual inspection.

THE BAND

The cadet corps was founded in 1861. By 1862 the band was already in operation. It consisted of a bass drum and four bugles which played a maximum of four notes. Already the band was performing. The earliest record of the band is a newspaper advertisement in 1862 advertising a concert.

Until 1969 there was a maximum of approximately only ten players. By 1978-79 Mr R. Tamblyn had introduced woodwinds into the band. During the year of 1983-84 the band reached a peak of 60 students; some having to be turned away do to lack of room in the formation.

Over the last couple of years, the band has covered new territory. It now includes a concert band and several smaller groups including a brass quintet and a saxophone trio. From its beginnings, the band has evolved into something which has become a large part of the cadet corps adding rhythm and style.

DRAMA

The yellowed pages filed in the archives of B.C.S. reveal little about the school's early theatrical endeavours. In the beginning, the actors had to struggle with the school dining hall and its dramatic ambience(!) It was not until 1889 and the construction of the Bishop Williams Hall that a real stage was made available. After a lag of theatrical activity during the war years, R.L. Young worked hard to revive the Dramatic club. Often evenings would consist of several short performances including: monologues, famous scenes and musical ensembles. A B.C.S. tradition was begun when during one of these variety-type shows the first production of the well-loved "Crossing the Tracks" was presented.

As in other activities at B.C.S., the lack of female presence was noticed in the Players' Club. To compensate for this however, unsuspecting boys were annually conned into appearing in productions disguised as members of the fairer sex. The 1947 rendition of "Arsenic and Old Lace" marked the first appearance by a girl and consequently (pardon the pun) set the scene for an on-going tradition.

B.C.S.'s Players' Club, over the years, has done nothing but expand both in talent and size. A comedy and a more serious play are now presented annually along with Noon hour plays and skits. The need for a new stage is apparent and plans are in the works. A thriving and exciting activity, drama at B.C.S. has been an important component adding to the school's success.

THE CHAPEL

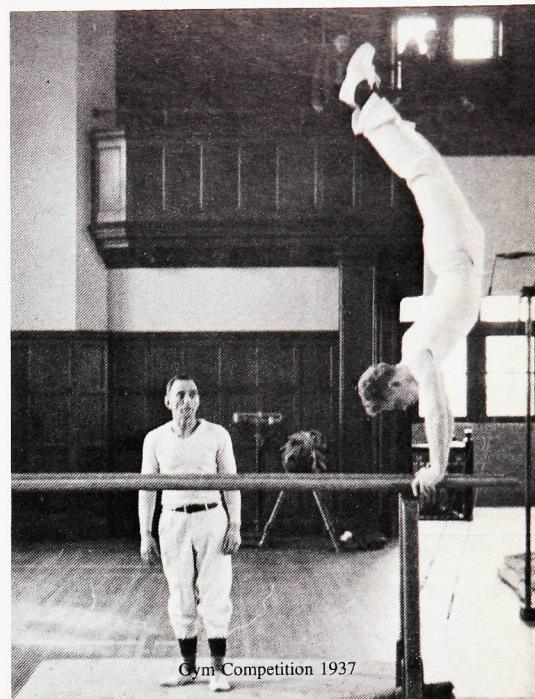

St. Martin's chapel is one of the rare places in the school where students can find peace and tranquility from their hectic schedule. Not many students find the time to sit down and listen to the silence. If they did, they would probably hear the ghosts of the past which haunt our chapel.

They might hear the sounds of young boys working their bodies to their limits. They might smell the sweat of hard work or hear the harsh voice of their coaches trying to teach young men who seem already to know everything. It is hard to believe our chapel was once a gym. The gym, (chapel), was also transformed into a dance floor for the rare occasion when the Compton girls were invited. An old melody might be heard, a tune being played while they see boys lining up on one side of the gym (chapel) and girls on the opposite side waiting to be asked to dance. The chapel has had many, many uses. The building was a gym, and where the altar now stands was a stage. As well as being used for dances it was where the cadet inspection was held. Why this building of all places for a chapel?

When our chapel was still a gym, on Sundays, you could see young boys going across the covered bridge to Bishop's University to attend the Sunday service in the University chapel. During the week there were house prayers at nine-thirty. This was when the whole house gathered for prayers, followed by the daily announcements.

Today, the chapel has become part of the school's routine. It is the only time in which the school is gathered together for ten or fifteen minutes. Students enter in silence in respect for the old boy's altar and they leave in silence, involved in their own thoughts. The chapel still remains the only place you can get away from the people you see everyday; where you can put your thoughts together.

Gym Competition 1937

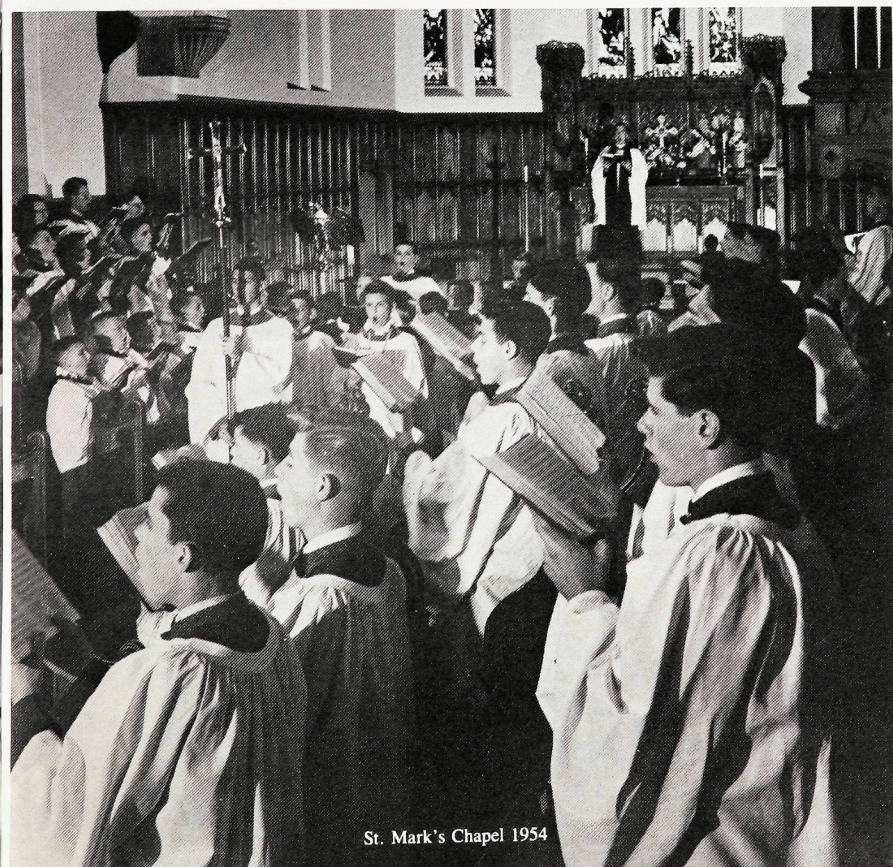

THE CHOIR

The choir is an essential part of the chapel. It is to the chapel as the band is to the cadet corps and has been ever since 1889. A group of boys would cross over to practice every Sunday in a small room with a piano; accompanied by Mr. A. Dorey. The school remained influenced by the quiet leadership of the small choir until 1934 when the "quiet choir" grew louder. This is when Mr. William A. Page better known as 'Pop Page' became choir master. Under his reign, the choir by 1935 had expanded to 40 boys. He gave the choir a new look; robes and cassocks, which are still worn today. In 1936, the choir tie was introduced, making it the oldest tie without being changed in the history of the school.

The boys had already begun performing in other churches including: Trinity Church in Montreal as well as several other local trips. Still remembered by the Old Boys, is the World War II service when the remaining choir boys sang for those whom they had grown to know and lost touch with. In the late 40's and early 50's the 'Choir Service', better known today as the Carol Service, was introduced; it has become an annual event ever since.

In 1953 the Reverend Foster was Chaplin as well as Choir Master. He introduced the Friday morning sing alongs. In 1958 Bertha Bell was the first woman organist since the 1920's. Finally in 1958, St. Martin's Chapel was decorated. The routine as we know it today had begun.

The above talks about important people who helped build the choir but it omits one very important aspect. The Choir is an essential contribution to school spirit and song. Song, A word which has become common, accepted and practiced in the Bishop's community.

MOUNTAIN DAY

Going up the mountain you heard laughter, singing and a few moans and groans. What started out as a cold day slowly turned into a warm beautiful day with mud and water in the pathways up to your ankles.

Once you reached the top of the mountain sore and hurting, but with a smile, you couldn't help but admire the splendid view.

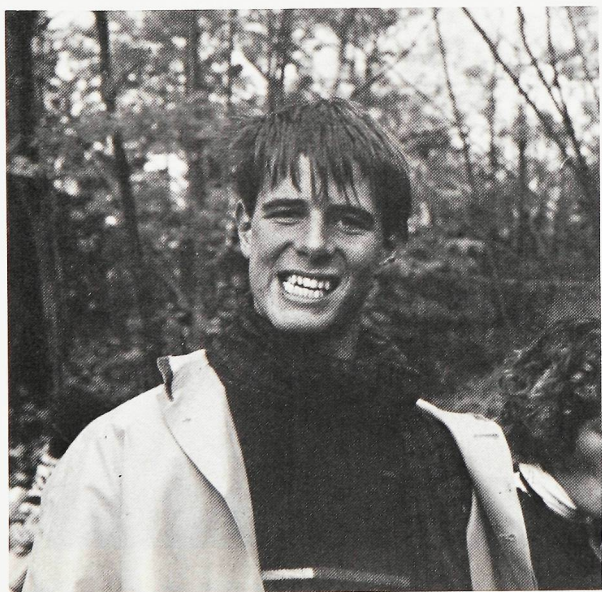

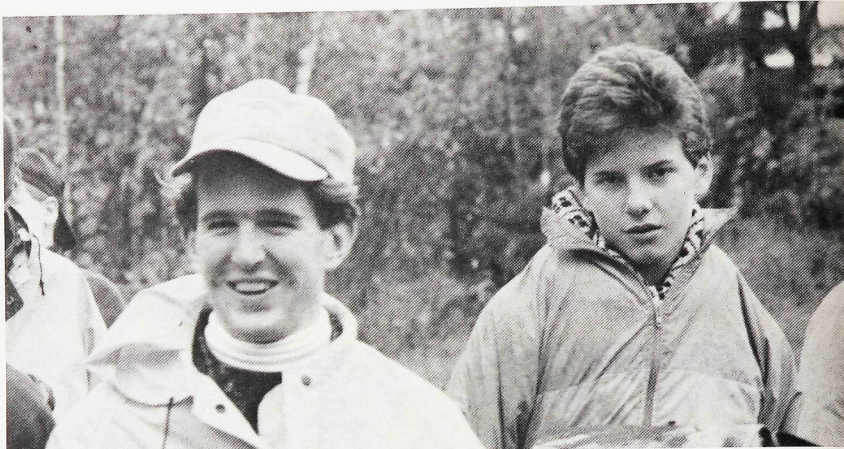

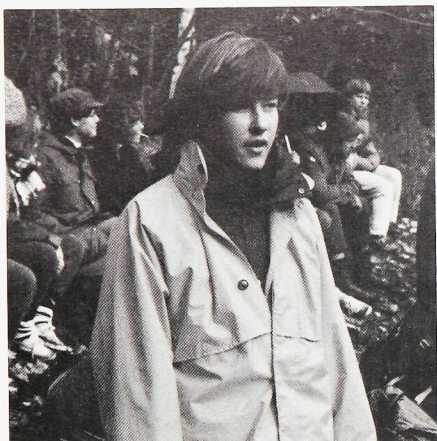

Time for a quick lunch and a small service then back down the mountain we went. This proved to be fun, sliding down the mountain in the mud.

CROSS COUNTRY RUN

The beautiful cool sunny day was the scene. The leaves on the ground were crispy with frost. Anxious students were tense and waiting for the starters gun to release their flexed muscles. With the explosion from the gun the participants in the annual cross country run were off, with butterflies dancing, to mud baths and leg cramps. Time goes on; eons for those who must keep the legs moving, sparse minutes to spectators and supporters. Tired, dirty, and smelling like sweat socks the runners brave a smile; soon they are going home. The junior winners were Sara Sheean and Dominic Bradford; the seniors were Robin Roots and Fraser Bertram.

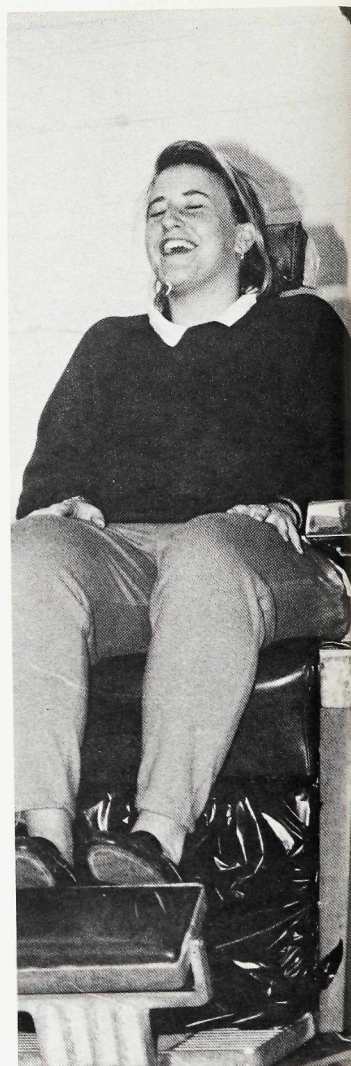

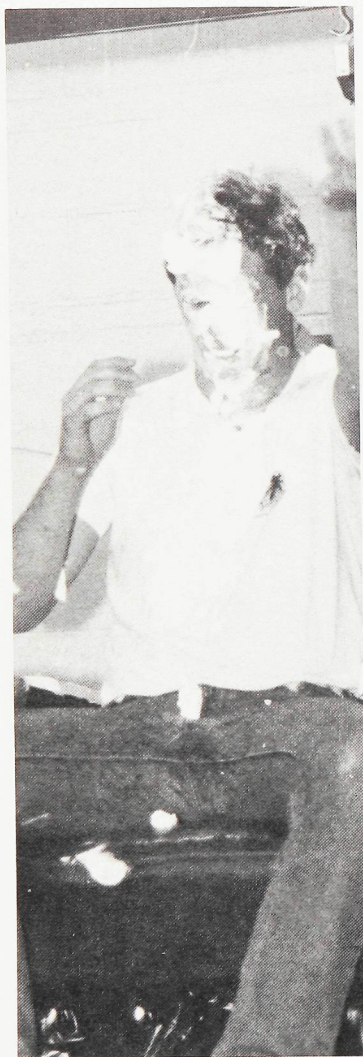

NEW STUDENT CADET CAMP

New student cadet camp was one of the many events that took place at the beginning of the school year. So, one Saturday the eager new cadets trooped onto buses and travelled to Wilvaken. There they learned to handle rifles, went canoeing and various other activities. Each and every one enjoyed the delicious ration pack meals, the beautiful freezing, rainy weather and the spacious sleeping areas of the tents. But, despite all the difficulties encountered, everyone came out alive . . . Much to their surprise!

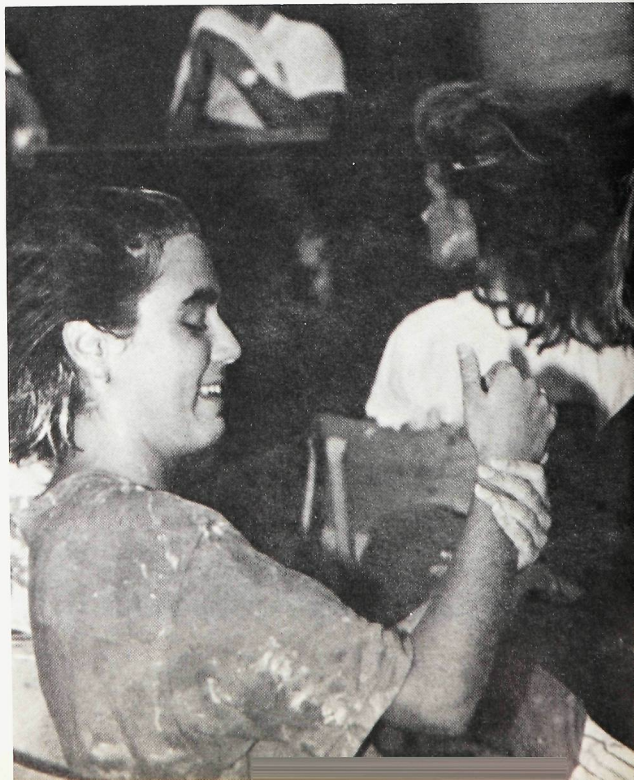

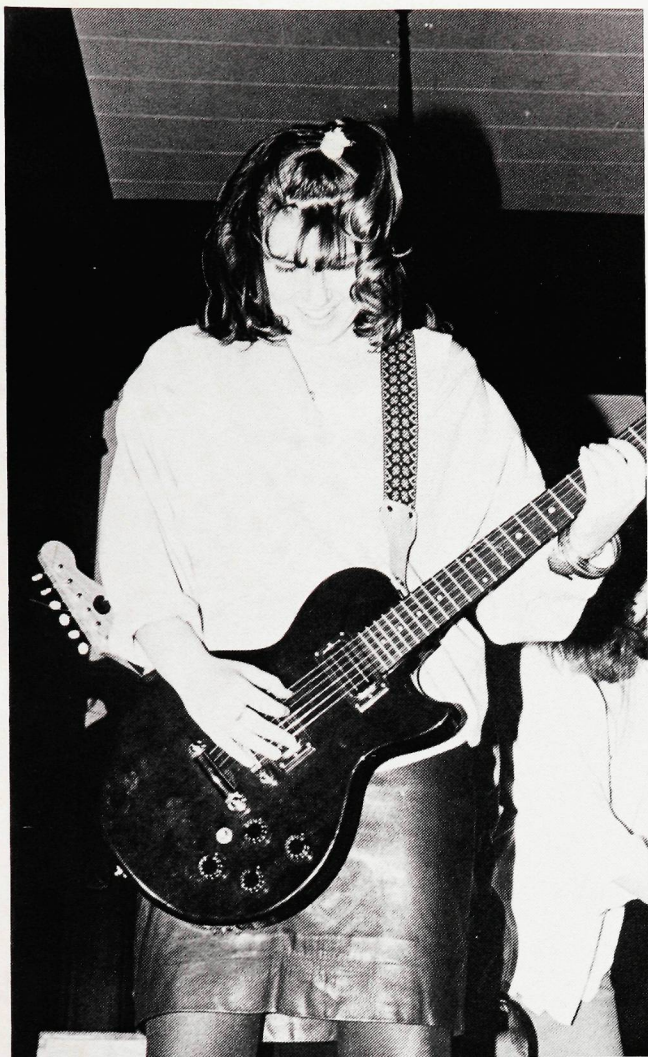

PIE THE PREFECTS

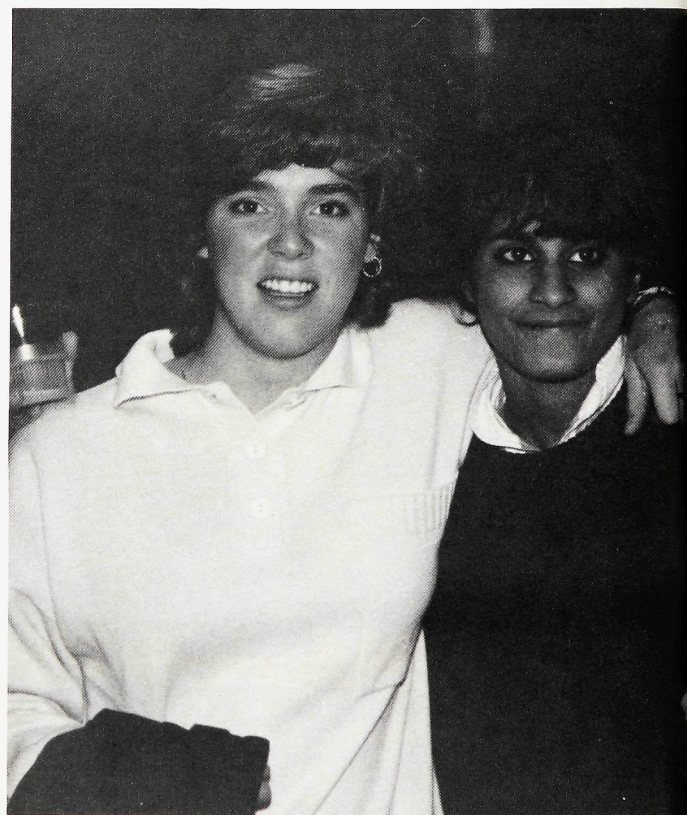

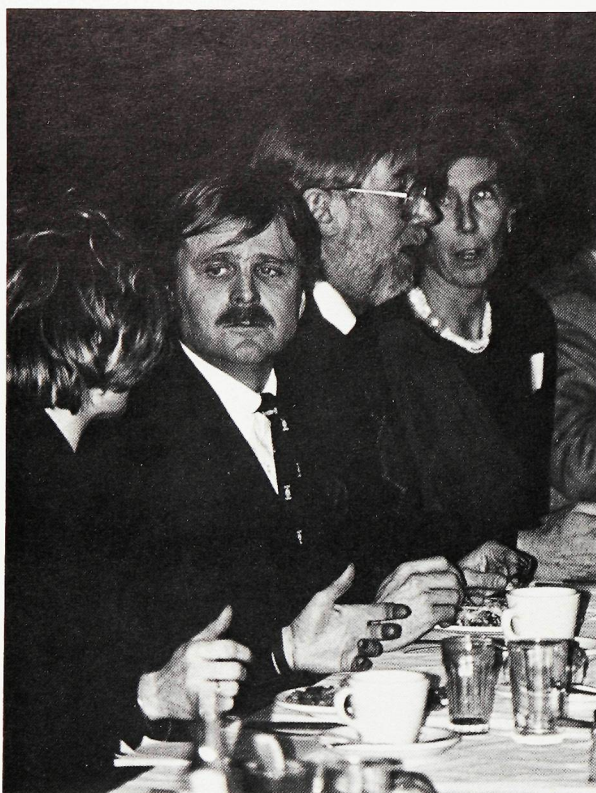

At 8:00 p.m. on November 7th havoc was wrought as the annual "Pie the Public Annoyance" or "burn anyone you'd like to for a price!" began. Introduced three years ago by the then fifth form Carnival committee, it is a wonderful opportunity to raise money and gain revenge at the same time. The sought after prefects were joined on the "big chair" by other local nuisances to amass a total of eight hundred dollars for both the Carnival and Grad Committees. A relatively new event - will it become a tradition? Only time will tell.

At the third annual B.C.S. Pub Night, masters of ceremony, Tom Goodwin and Derrick Wolf wowed the audience with their stylish attire, wit and repartee. The panel of judges, including staff and students, struggled to choose the winner from a wide variety of talented numbers. Most entries were lipsynched with the exception of the brilliant comedy act put on by Mrs. Common and the live act of B.C.S.'s own band. The music ranged from 'Bananarama' to 'Twisted Sister'. At the conclusion of the evening the winners were announced: First place went to Lala Edbrooke, Bree Fitzgerald, Liz Gallery, Alex Lalonde and Kathy McCrory for their performance of "Drugs In My Pocket". Following in second place were the Prefects with "Feed The World" and third place was revealed to be a tie between "The Rascals" and "Run DMC". On the whole it was a fun filled evening, leaving both students and staff rolling in the aisles.

150th Anniversary Article

"150 years of looking ahead" is probably the most repeated phrase at B.C.S. this year. But reminders of the fact that it is our 150th anniversary have been constant. Several separate committees have been responsible for the many activities and events held to celebrate this special occasion. The student committee, chaired by Ann Case worked closely with both the staff and alumni committees to organize everything from an open-house to an Easter egg hunt.

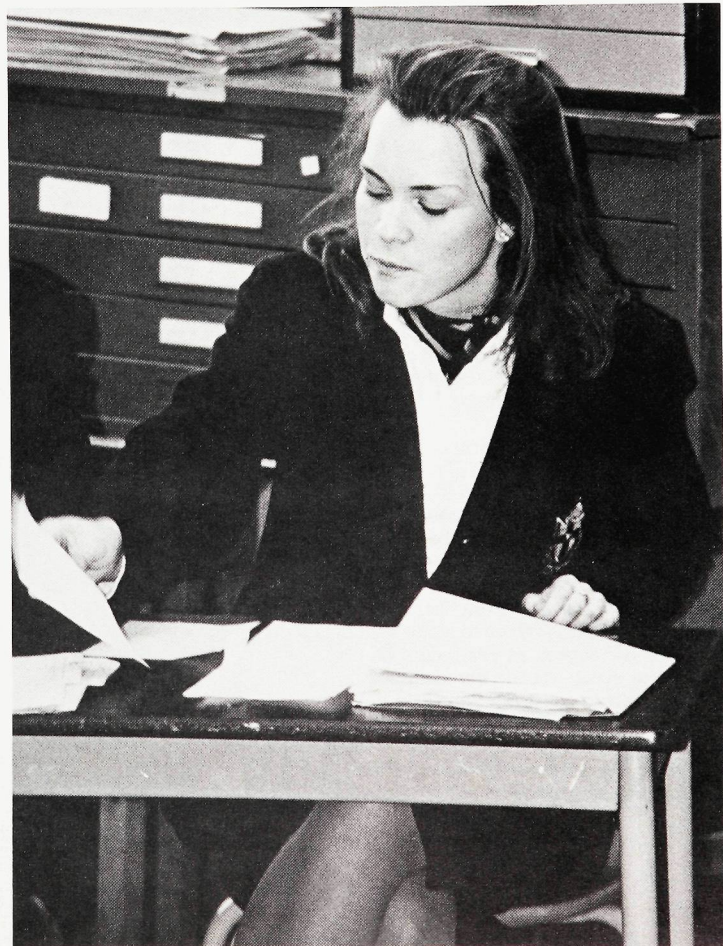

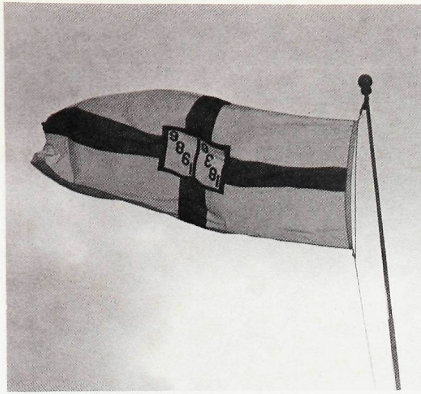

The celebrations began last May when several groups from the local community, including the Scouts, the Guides and the Lennoxville ACW, were invited to visit and tour the school on a regular Saturday morning. It was a beautiful sunny day and visitors strolled across the fields as students worked out at crease.

A school birthday party-field day was organized for the fall, unfortunately bad weather caused it to be cancelled and rescheduled for the spring. This spring event took the form of an Easter egg hunt!

One of the most important weekends for the 150th celebrations was Thanksgiving or 'Old Boys'. The usual matches and chapel service were supplemented with many special activities. 700 people attended the Steer Roast and dance and a huge birthday cake was baked (and devoured) by alumni, staff and students. The specially designed 150th flag was raised while the Prefects launched balloons from the school roof. During the well-attended chapel service, the choir sang an anthem composed for the 150th year by the organist and choirmaster Geoffrey Thomson. The sermon, delivered by the ex-primate of Canada and enthusiastic congregational singing during the hymns were all part of the success of the service.

Other events included the 150th B.C.S. Invitational Debating Tournament. 17 schools from Nova Scotia to Winnipeg spent the weekend at B.C.S. arguing about current issues and controversial questions. A special celebrity debate was also held. James Booth and Mary Hallward (both alumni) competed against Mme. Vennat and C.B.C.'s Peter Gzowsky to decide if "the Beaver and the Eagle should be united". Looking through the B.C.S. calendar, many other events spring to mind . . . (con't)

150TH EVENTS

Included in the celebrations was a benefit performance of the Players' Club production of "Slave of Duty". Gilbert and Sullivan's operetta ranks first for the number of times a play has been produced at B.C.S. Attended by alumni and various members of the community, the evening included; champagne, birthday wishes and a great deal of laughter. On a more academic note, Bishop's hosted a math competition for the primary schools in the area giving the visiting students a chance to see B.C.S. in action.

During the 'country club' term, 150th celebrations took the form of a cricket match. The combination of alumni versus staff and students made one wonder if the traditional tranquility and impeccable sportsmanship associated with this game will ever return.

Besides a variety of events, the 150th committees organized a whole slew of "150th stuff". Ranging from beer mugs to anniversary painter caps, a special 150th tie to a new school flag, all these "little extras" served as reminders of the birthday year. A long list of events remain unmentioned including; a time capsule, coast to coast reunions, old boys' hockey tournament, Founder's day service and a photograph of the entire school. A million thank you's are owed. Many feel the most rewarding result was primarily due to the overwhelming participation and cooperation of staff, students, and Alumni.

THE SLAVE OF DUTY

Why the PIRATES?

Why did we choose this play for our 150th Anniversary Celebration? That's simple: 1. No play has been produced as often by the B.C.S. Players' Club.

2. PIRATES challenges our main resources: youth, energy, imagination, concentration.

3. No play would stretch our facility - and creativity - further.

4. Few plays are as much fun to do.

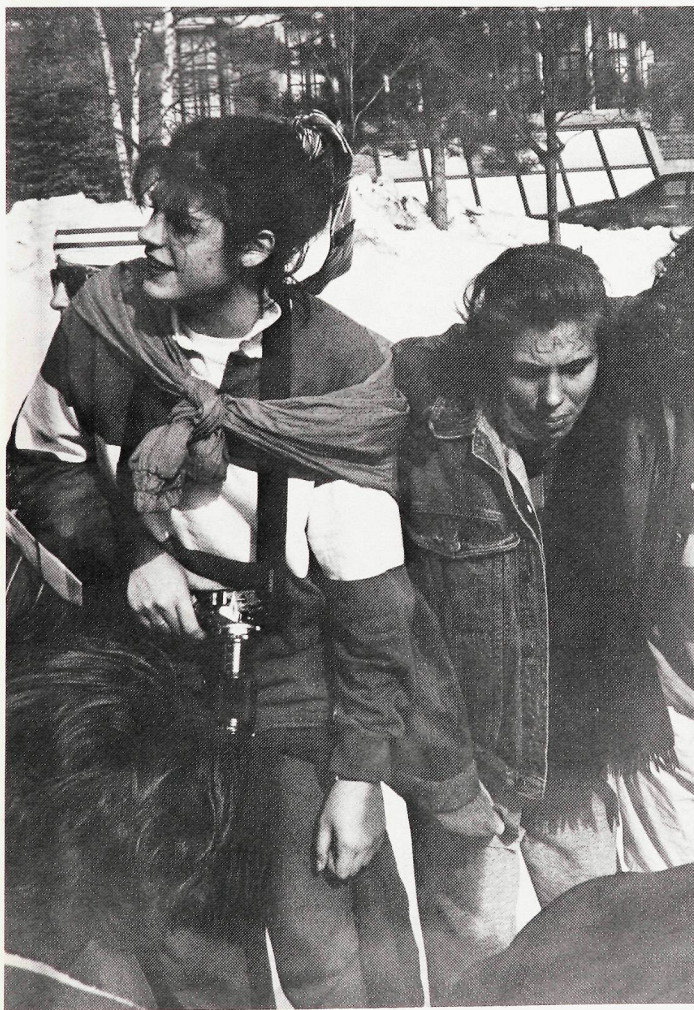

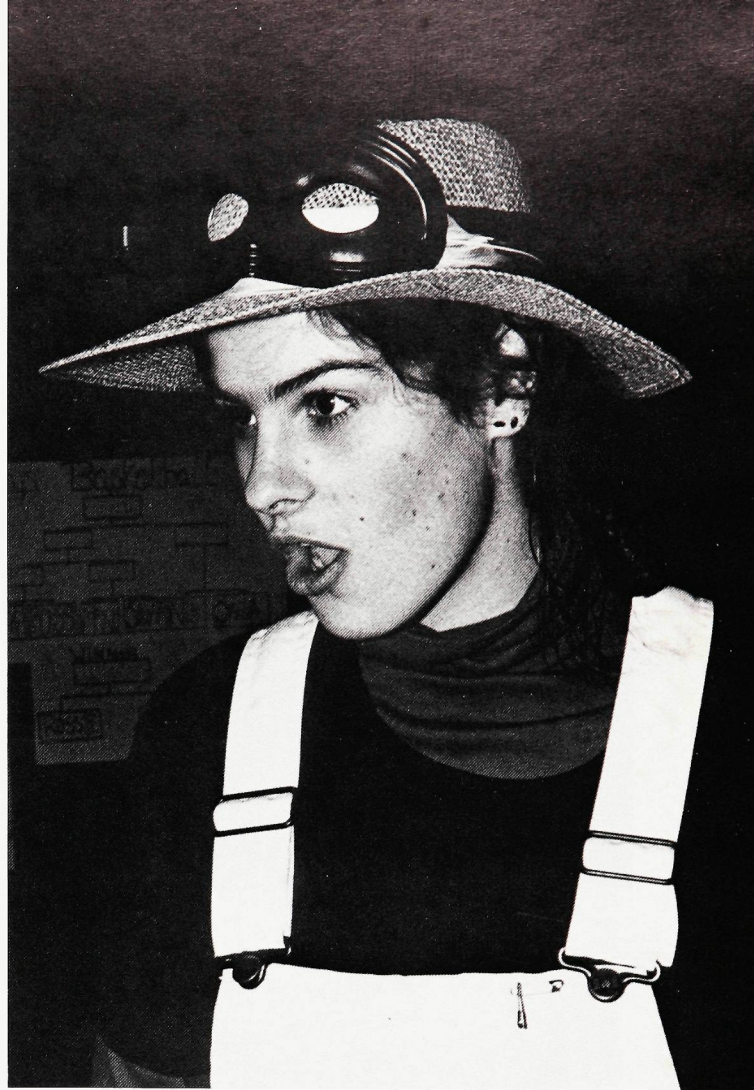

No team in the school needs more work or concentration or commitment or co-operation than does the team on call to-night. We tip our hats to the Players' Club of years gone by, but at the same time we give you a contemporary production that shows how this group continues to grow.

W. Lewis Evans

Representative of the views of many who saw the play, this is an excerpt from Alan and Shirley Finley's letter to Mr. Evans. In 1939 Alan Finley played the leading role of Mabel in PIRATES at a time when B.C.S. productions consisted of all-male casts.

"A most nostalgic and exhilarating experience. Can't really find the words to describe our feelings relative to the school's production of 'The Slave of Duty' - truly a remarkable performance and I would venture close to, if not actually at, the all time high water mark of successful B.C.S. productions. I was particularly impressed with the intermingling and co-operative efforts of faculty and students. The cast and crew are to be highly complimented for a sizzling performance."

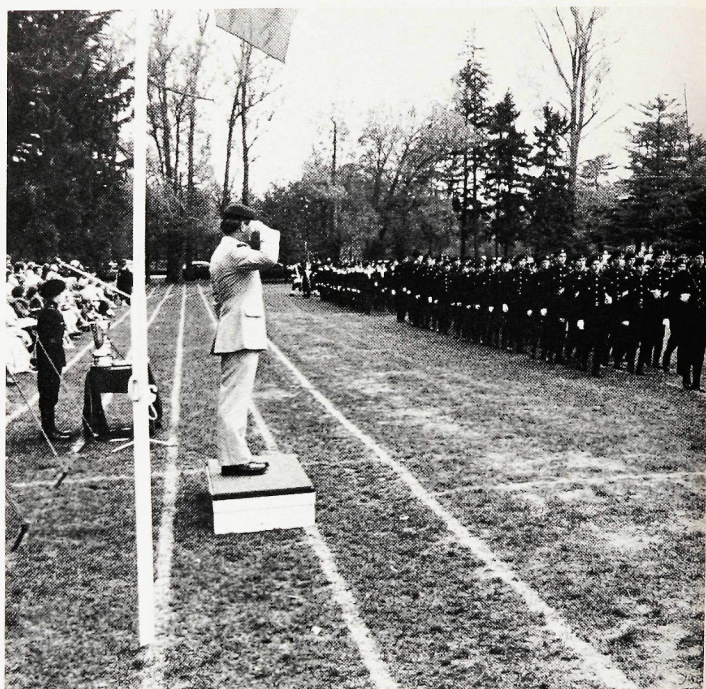

Any announcements?

There will be a Carnival meeting again and again and again . . . and a special invitation is extended to A.Y. Bring an empty stomach so to be sure of finishing off the candy jar, devouring jumbos and ordering Champs. We've worked hard raising $3000 (50's night, dinner auction, bottle drive, underground theatre) but that doesn't mean we can start slacking off. We have an important weekend in Knowlton coming up, with many things to accomplish (snicker, snicker). So remember to: stay in good health and to keep your sanity, don't miss meetings (Sam), never sit in front of Chunk and Adam on a mini bus and whatever you do; DON'T PASS APPLS TO THE SAME SEX! As the dynamic duo and the Indian Swamy would say:

- "Leaping lizards Batman, we've done good!"
- "Yes Robin, we have."
- "But wait Batman! Don't forget to thank Sherlock!"
- "I was saving the best for last."

CADET INSPECTION

Cadets has seen a lot of new things this year: 110 new recruits, a new and wonderful "fatigue" approach, shoulder flashes, cap badges and hundreds of new blue berets.

Our old traditions have remained as well. New student cadet camp, Remembrance Day parade in Lennoxville, and the competition between the band and precision squad, which is slowly putting me into debt, were all quite successful.

The inspection, held on a windy and cold day was excellent. Brigadier General Mackenzie was greatly impressed by our efforts. Our attitude was relaxed and professional which was easily conveyed to our visitors. Congratulations!

"Rambo" and uniforms aside, cadets does have something to offer us. Maybe you will never touch a rifle again and perhaps map and compass is not your style, but there is something else. It is the feeling you get when you march around the school, down the road and onto the field in front of your families. It is a mixture of nervousness, pride, uncertainty, comradery, contempt and relief that is a unique experience. If that is all you got this year, it was enough. I would not trade that feeling for anything.

The funny thing is, in the end you all had smiles on your faces. It must not have been as bad as you thought it would be!

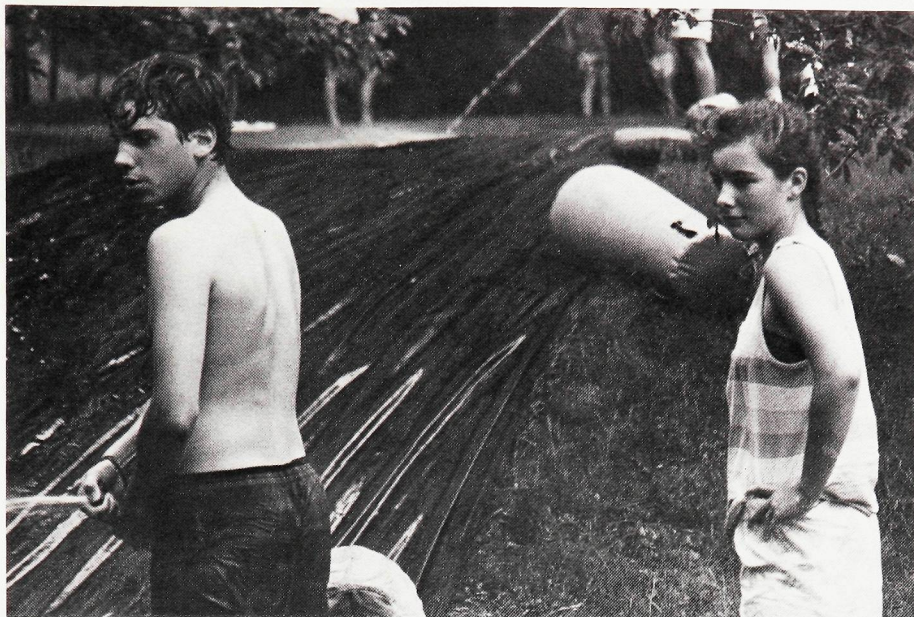

Way to go Gumbies!

Cadet Major Andy MacLachlan

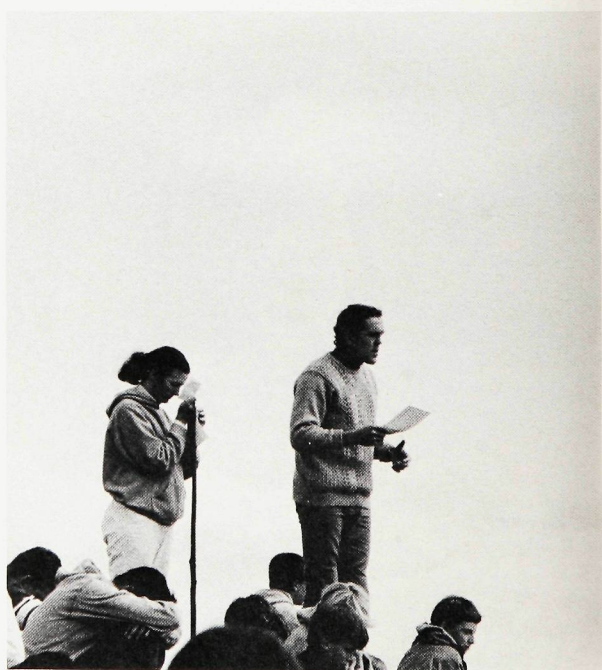

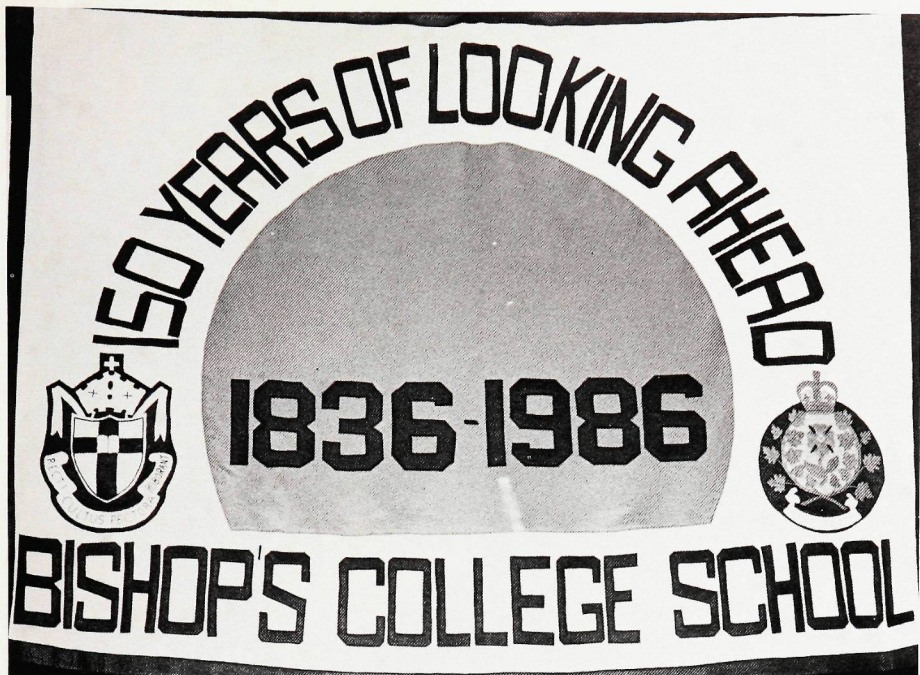

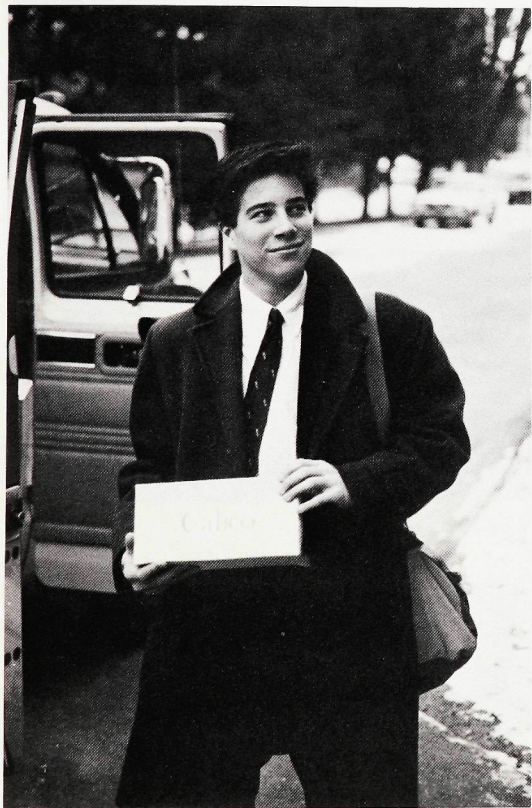

MAY FAIR

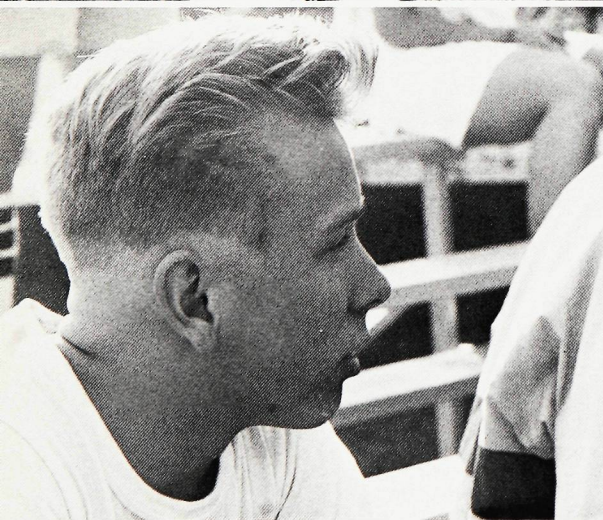

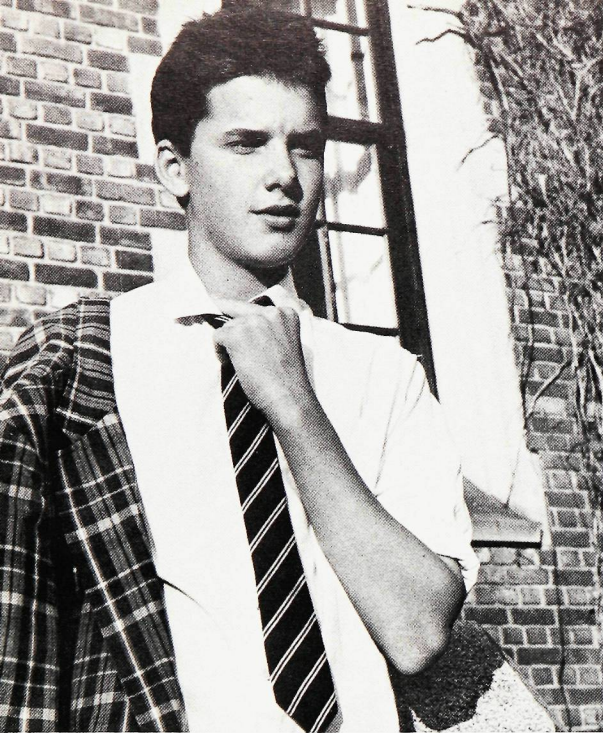

The first of its kind and hopefully not the last. It was a great success which was highlighted by such booths as: North's Haunted House, Smith's Water Slide, and the Sponge Throw. All in all the event raised the schools spirits and about $750.

Twas the night before christmas and all through the house
 every creature was stirring except for the mouse.
 Sarah and Pippa in room number one while Sara borrows money
 Pippa's coat is on the run
 Then there's Michelyn and her men and Lydia's in the annex again.
 Marianne & Irene are hardly ever heard
 So when we walk by the room we dare not disturb.
 But in the next room its almost too much; Naoko speaks Japanese
 While Lisa speaks Dutch
 Around the corner to Silole & Yvonne we go, throughout the halls we hear their phone messages
 echo.
 Tannis learns her functions with incredible might while her phantom roommate chuckles with delight.
 Jen loves to go for a run while Polina thinks the play is lots of fun.
 When we leave that cozy little den we find
 Caroline running after so many men.
 As we go upstairs, we meet Caroline & Kim laughing and sharing some little whim.
 Julie had to come late,
 so poor Caroline was left without a roommate.
 As we walk down the hall, things seem so nice
 Yet Charlene and Bert are like sugar and spice,
 Then we've got Genevieve and Leanne,
 Ones working hard while the other's with her man While pondering on that let's visit Helgie and Barb
 one dreams of Wade, while the other has nice garb.
 While in the next room, Kim listens to weird songs
 Martine, for its skating she longs.
 And if we drop in on Sophie and Kelly we'll see them doing Jane Fonda working off their non-existent bellies.
 If you listen by the next door you'll hear Kayla &
 Roxanne, who are laying a trap for some lucky man.
 Samara & Kirsten are doing some singin'
 While Leo & Sara dream of T.O. & drinkin'
 That's it for upstairs lets head for the annex
 Where the 7th formers are studying in a panic.
 Ariana & Ann together they're always seen
 While Amanda & Margaret keep their room real clean.
 Jasmine & Julie are always screaming over spilt
 milk
 While they're roommates, Di & Su just don't know what to do.
 So Merry Christmas to all and to all a good night.

CHAPMAN

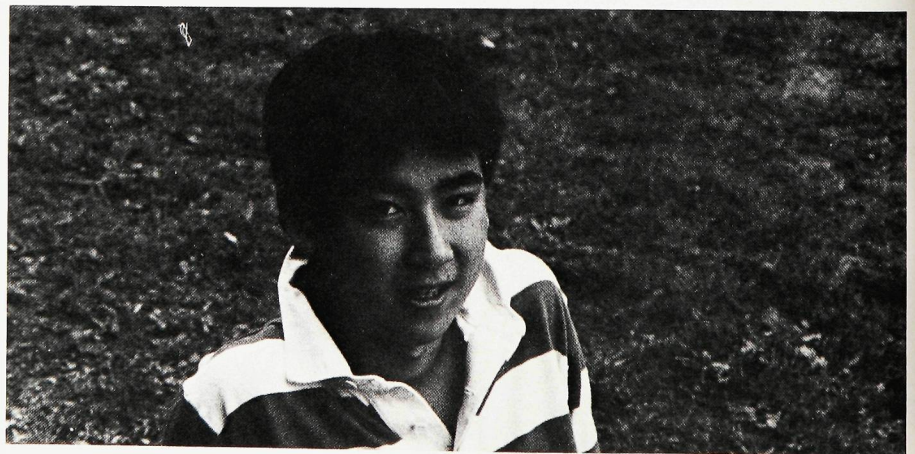

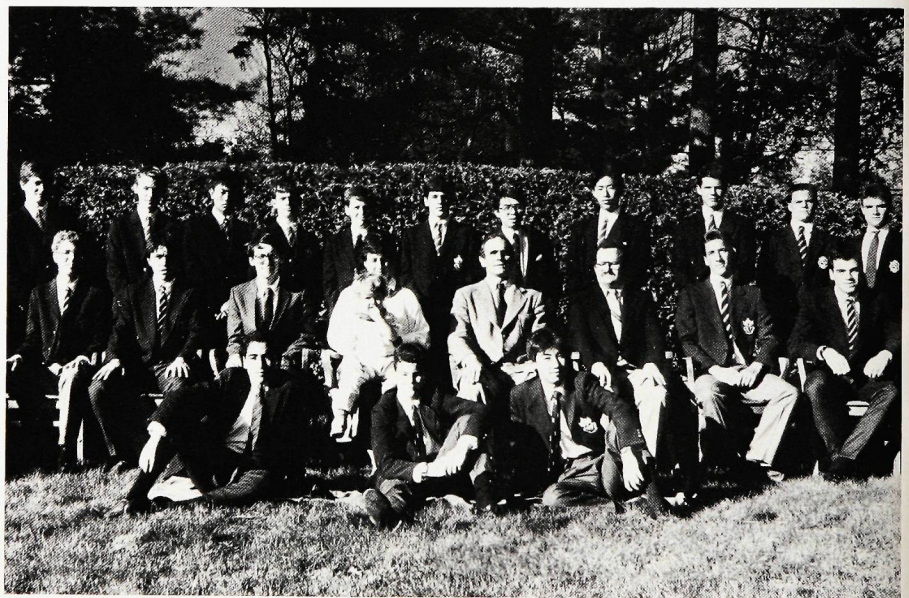

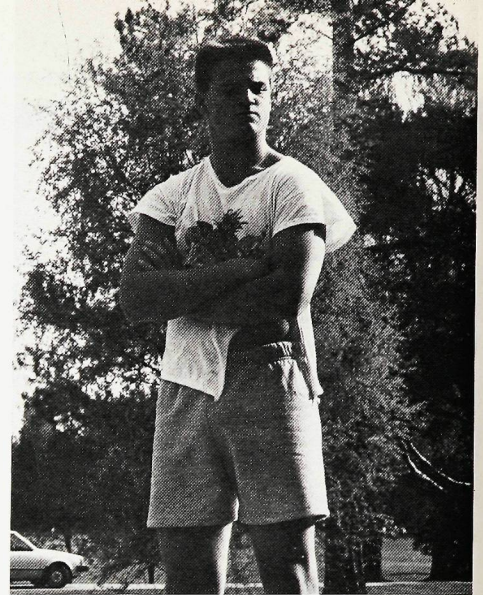

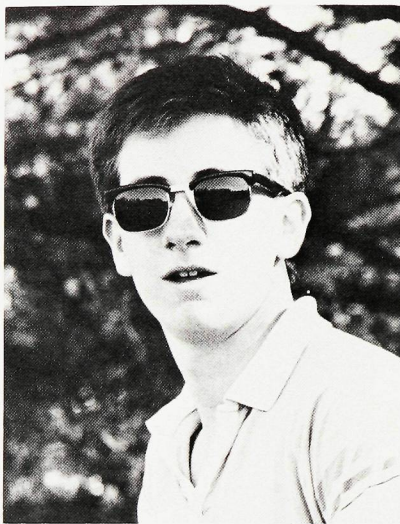

Taking a look back at the records of "repairs needed" in Chapman House, I discovered some revealing notices:

- windows in upper dorms leaking badly in winter; storm windows not removable for acration and screens in summer.
- walls are of pressed sawdust and buckle to the pressure of the wrist; cosmetically patched with plaster - and repainted each term, they now bulge ominously and need repair.
- basement has a fetid river flowing from the north wall, through the furnace room, and into the over-charged sump. Help!
- kitchen ceiling leaking intermittently when upstairs showers are in use.
- small paper windmills made by idle boys during prep are reputed to function energetically on the frosted window-sills even the night is relatively calm outside.

The bite has gone out of these observations. They belong to the realm of nostalgia. Chapman was gutted and refitted last summer by Drew and Sons. The new thermal-pane windows, the firm crisply painted walls, the electrical heating and sound-proofed ceilings are a realization of comfort and luxury that many a former Chapman boy would have relished.

The Chapman ghost seems contented too, and rests peacefully in the dry attic spaces among cobwebs and heaps of fluffy insulation.

GLASS

A normal house we are not, a mixture of all kinds, although some do not agree. We've got our "Peppers", then there's them Seventh-form Dames (don't gobble too many Gurkens) and of course we have our blonds (faces no. 59, anyone?). 7th form duty nights, late nights and late nights had by all. Open House decorations . . . at midnight . . . in bathtubs(?). Who was that masked vaseline bandit? At Hovey, Glass could finally eat to its potential without having to worry about who was watching! I heard it through the grapevine 'bout these great people. No doubt our spirit would not be the same without the Perriers. Mrs. P, our fearless leader, with a big heart, heavy eyes and the best tuck resistance in the house. Mr. P. on duty, some surprising moments for all! When Miss Harding was on duty, by the book!! What was the record? 23 laps in one night; at least we got into shape! Mrs. McGregor, never fear Mre Mc.G is here; it's been an awesome and educational year for all. The moments have come and gone, but the memories shall linger forever.

Opening House Meeting:

"Yes guys, we will have tuck this year!"

"No, we didn't get a new hot water tank!"

Next House meeting:

"So what do you guys want from the ladies auxiliary for Christmas?"

House Bathrobes with our positions and names, and of course Grier North on the back!"

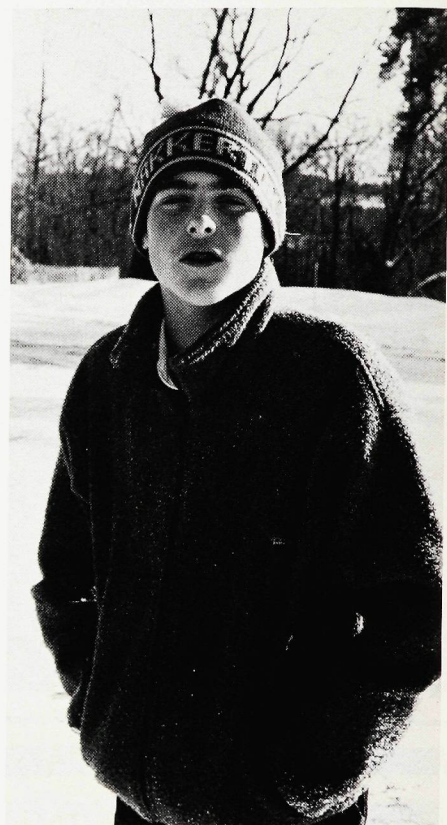

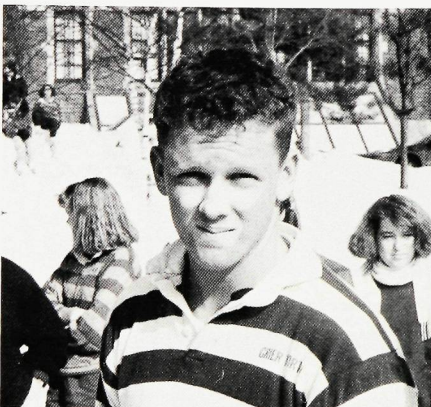

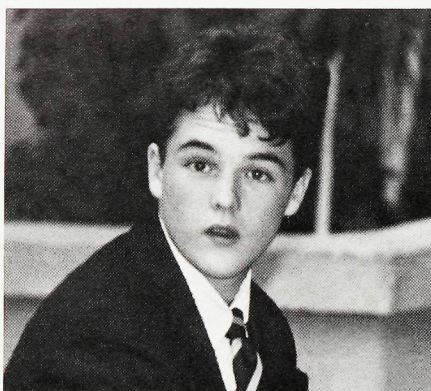

Goals for the year: "Do it with style." "Have a tuck profit (just once)."

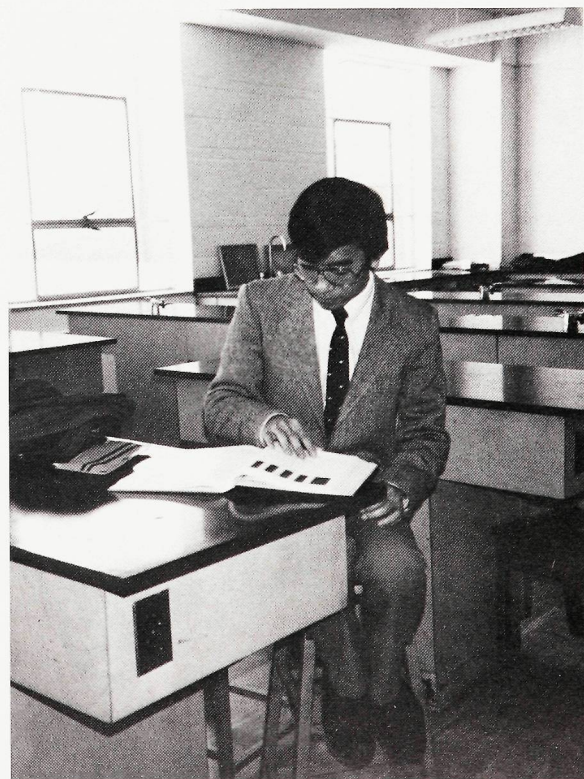

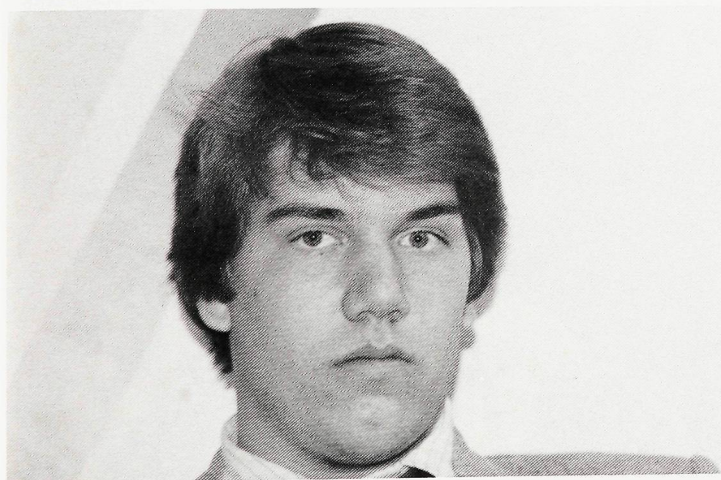

Our main goal was to improve the reputation that the house had received during past years. We feel that with help of our Main P.A.C.-Man, Mr.G, we were very successful.

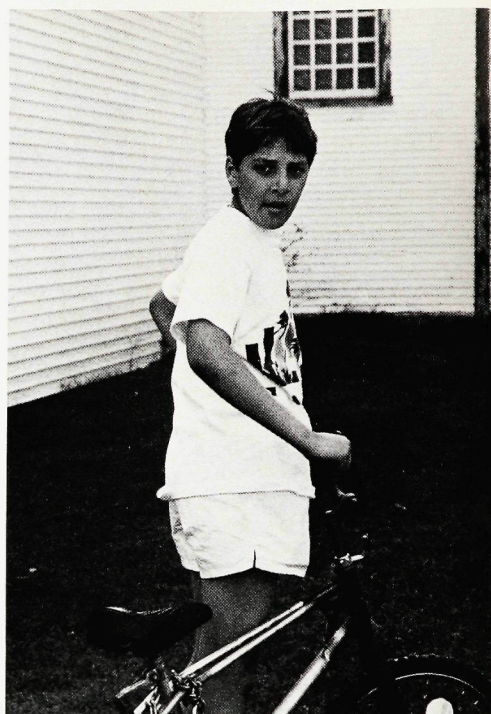

Thanks to all the house masters for their constant effort to keep us in our rooms during prep; and of course Mrs. G for the chocolate cakes that we received so often.

Many Thanks,

Aaah! The blues are coming, the blues are coming! Not the northern blues (the "other" blues), but the TRUE BLUES, the smurfing blues. We have TURNED our song this year and the dance has changed along with it, but we're not singing the blues around here, we never sing the blues. Even though we wear the nicest tie you'll never hear us gloat or brag 'cause we never whistle the blues. ROSS I

We're the hometown crowd who drops in on Bish from our comfortable homes at 7:15 every morning and give it our all academically, athletically and even socially. After a tough day you can be sure to find more action in the small but lively Ross common room. Whether working for a suck tie, catching up on the latest soaps or much needed sleep it's happening here among cross-country and track banners, and Carnival plaques (mostly girls). At 7:45 it's time to leave for the comforts of home, but in a few hours our Elite Group will return and add what we can to Bish life. Thanks Mrs. Sakamoto for another great year, from all of us jelly bean misfits.

ROSS II

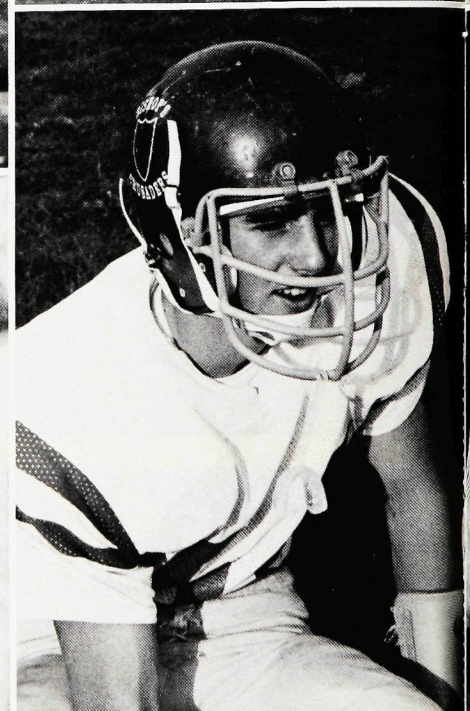

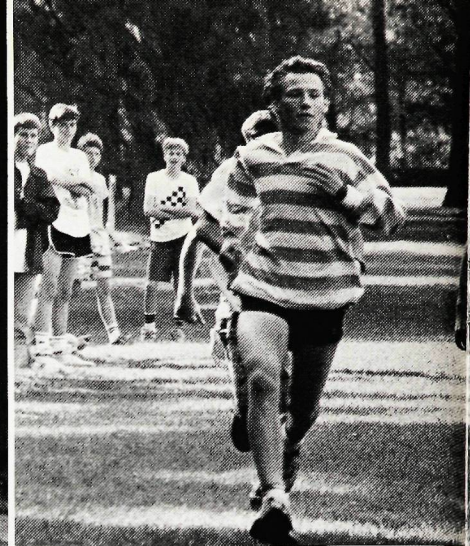

One of the most profound achievements of the Junior Ross house, this year, was their ability to come together. The chemistry of the people was as unlikely as pieces of a different puzzle. Yet the result, although time consuming, was a unique, spirited group. With our rookie house parent, Geof (viscious) Thompson and house captains Tom Goodwin and "what's his name" (Charles Coleman), we were able to overcome many high obstacles. (like the surpression of the hollow blinded). Some events will always be remembered, like:

- funny midget ninjas
- Tobin's classic sitting positions
- snowball fights in the hallway
- OPEN - THE - DOOR!
- painting the common room
- new furniture (how about that?!) ha! ha!
- Pilon in a locker
- what's that under the cushion?
- a proposed new common room (a tree)
- the old lock
- P.S. - never try to change us.

SENIOR GIRLS SOCCER

The senior girls' soccer team this year, led by Helga Wolf and Tracey Stevens, was very successful. Some of their victories included: the Stanstead Invitational Tournament and the game versus Champlain (3-0). The overall season resulted in five wins, three ties and three losses. Helga Wolf, winner of the Stuart Bateman Trophy, was a true asset to the team, along with Sara and the support of an incredible group. Special mention goes to Ariana and Leslie's "Life Savings."

The team's attitude was inspired by the cheers; "oogies", "rickum rackum" and "hussle". And if you've ever played soccer on the lower field at Massey Vanier, you'll know what is meant when you hear "breast stroke in the mud."

It is important to mention that without Mr. Peacock, Mrs. Sakamoto and Dino's support, the team could not have achieved so much. Maybe next year a scrimmage against Argentina could be arranged!

SENIOR BOYS SOCCER

Senior boys soccer had a very successful season. Led by Dino Maniffi and Alberto Rivera, the team enjoyed no losses, one tie, and thirteen wins, including a win against Old Boys, Lennoxville United, and the League Champions.

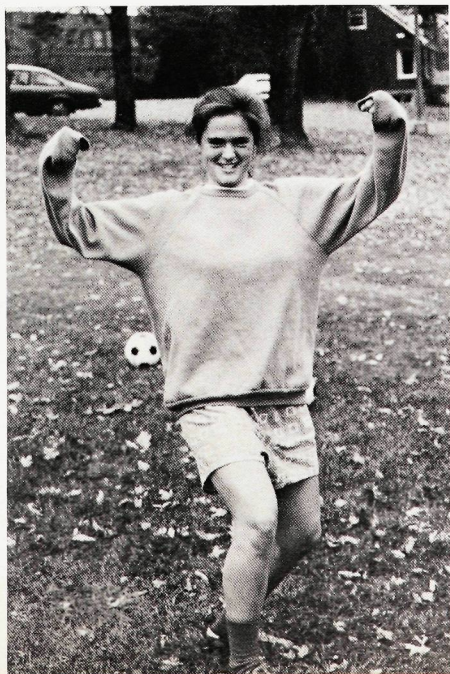

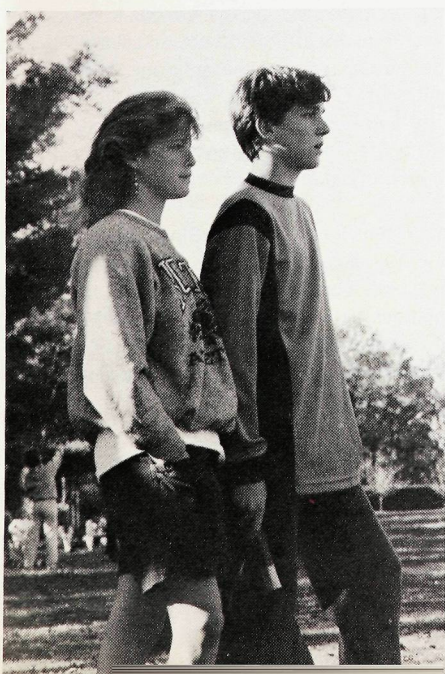

"The beginning was rough but as we started winning, the team spirit was awesome", they said.

This winning streak was due in great part to Major Turner and also to John Beatty for his excellent spirit towards the team.

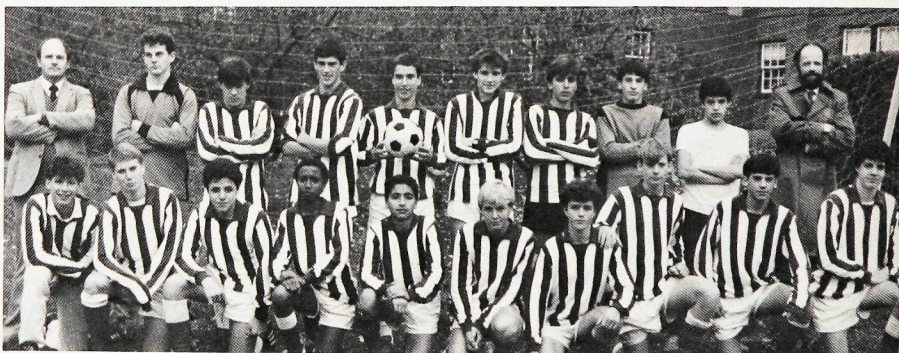

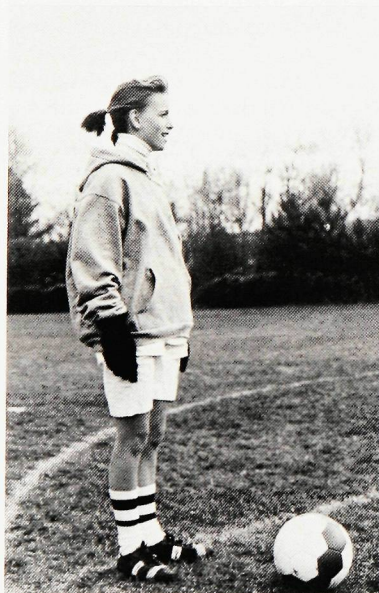

("Well played John Beatty!!!"). Further commendations go to Alberto Rivera, for his great goal tending and to Dino Maniffi, for a great overall year.

Things such as Billy and Sam's orthodontist appointment, Peter Bakos: President of the M.V.B. committee, Adam Yanow asking to touch the ball, and Sam losing ten pounds all help the team remember the great time they had. "Fire in the belly, magic in the feet."

BANTAM BOYS SOCCER

The Bantam Boys Soccer Team was captained this year by Phil Cote and co-captained by David Major. They did not have any great victories but there was a lot of team spirit, even on Saturday mornings. Special mention goes to Nick Scheib, the most valuable player on the team, for his outstanding spirit and Phil Cote who was always willing to help others improve.

Hopefully next year the team will have a better record!!!

Don Booth and Chris Hamelin captained the junior boys' soccer team during the fall season. Playing the usual league games and a few exhibition ones as well, the team managed to make it to the ETIAC semi-finals. Perhaps their success was due to the powerful midfield: Jeff, Chuck and Chris, otherwise known as "the only ones who could score". Or instead, was it the work of the kamkazi defence pair: Nick Sundquist and Nick Cote (Always arriving in the nick of time)?

Thank you are due to Mr. Slocombe for his encouragement and to Dave Clinton for being both manager and spectator. Future ambitions lie in the realms of improving their number of games won! Many feel the continuation of those well-loved 'wakeups' ought to do the trick.

In the beginning, God said: "Let there be a junior girl's soccer team." And there was. The team, under the leadership of Raquel Welch, played a season that did not measure in goals but rather in team spirit. Although they did manage to squeeze in a win of 2-0 against Massey Vanier.

On the whole, the entire team improved. Outstanding efforts were seen from Raquel Welch for her dedication to the team, Louise Theberge for her "gutsy" play and Marie-Helen Roberge for the team's two goals. Unfortunately due to an injury early on, Liz Gallery was out for the rest of the season.

Special thanks go to Mr. St.-Jaques and Mrs. Goodwin for hanging in there with the team and not giving up.

"SHE'S GOT IT, YEAH BABY SHE'S GOT IT!"

BANTAM GIRLS SOCCER

This year, the team, captained by Sally Goodwin and Michelynn Poirier, did not win many games but they always put up a good fight . . . except one game which shall not be mentioned!! Remember . . . Jodi's ankle, Cindy's nails, Rat's pouting, Sally's football techniques, Tara the giant, Fina's kicks, Caroline's accuracy and Elyse who always kept the bench warm.

Thanks go to Mr. and Mrs. D. and Audrey, three gnarly coaches!

NEXT TIME

FIELD HOCKEY

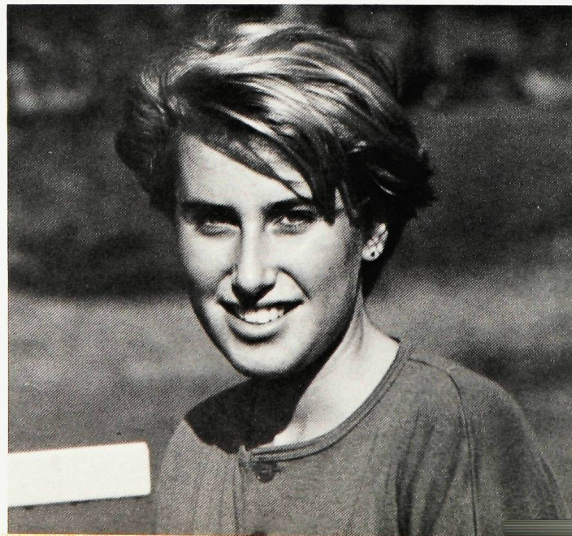

This fall, field hockey was headed by Ann Case. The team consisted of a large number of rookies. They had difficulty winning many of their games, but they did manage to bring home the bronze medal from a Montreal tournament.

More importantly, great team spirit was shown and they had a lot of fun. Special thanks goes to Miss Lane, for her great coaching, and to Ann, for her leadership. Their ambition is to get Chambly next year!

Remember: Love those green pinneys!

CROSS COUNTRY RUNNING

Cross country running is an individual's sport but nevertheless this year the team spirit and support was very positive. Twenty runners of varying abilities worked hard together to win the B.C.S. Invitational Meet, the Senior Girls and Boys Eastern Township Zone Championships and the Overall Zone Championship. Jen McGillvary, Robin Roots and Fraser Bertram went on to qualify for the Provincials in Gaspé.

The team's popular moto was "No pain, no gain, no brains". But there must have been some intelligence behind it all, perhaps Dr. Bob, Mr. Dopheide and Mr. Sheriffs were partly responsible and certainly a good deal of thanks is due to them for all their hard work and encouragement. Looking ahead to the future the team foresees a need for more bantam runners, more runs in the sun and a difficult quest - a replacement for Fraz.

"AND WE RAN, RAN SO FAR AWAY!"

RECORD TIME

IN THE HUDDLE

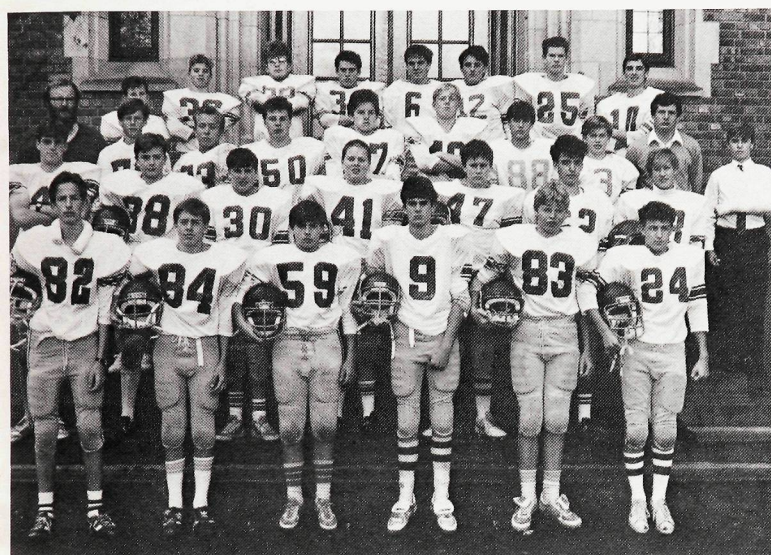

SENIOR FOOTBALL

The Senior Football Crusaders have always had a reputation for toughness, and despite the fact that many of their "greater" players have been graduating over the years they managed to once again maintain that reputation this year. Captain Themis Efraimidis "Hey guys! Let them hit me this time! . . . I'm bored!" and Asst. Captains Scott Tinker, Andy MacLachlan, and Naran

Leseigneur (Le Terminateur), all in their second or third year on Sr. Football, contributed a lot towards the team's winning the Senator Howard Trophy vs. Stanstead College, the H.H. Norsworthy Challenge Football Trophy vs. Selwyn House and naturally they were once again E.T.I.A.C. 86/87 Champions. Not to be forgotten Peter Morris (TD), John Kovach, and numbers 12, 51, 74, and 26. Special Thanks to the coaches of the Crusaders Corporation Mr. G, Mr. G and Mr. C.. We'll crush Ashbury next year and don't forget "No Pain! No Gain! We don't want to hurt nobody we just want to make them hurt!"

Lilford Third Row: L.S. Pilon, C. Bradley, M. Charlton (Off. Capt.), B. Jones, A. Touze, P. Fortier Fourth Row: Mr. Romonado (Coach), Mr. Brass (Coach)

Although the team consisted of only six veterans it was composed of a great and ambitious group of guys.

Maybe next year the team will amount to the sufficient number of players!

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

This season was a good one for Junior Football, despite only two wins. Captains Jon Bishop and Martin Carle along with assistant captains Derek Wolf and Mario Iannuzzi did a fine job. The daily practices were livened up by Gary's "new plays", Paul Wu (the animal, made in Taiwan), Derek 'Le Chateau' Wolf's hit and run and Jon's low running! A special mention should go to Eric Bishop for his true team spirit.

Maybe next year the team will improve their winning record under the coaching of Mr. MacDonald and Mr. Marlin; the blimp and the wimp!

BANTAM FOOTBALL

This fall, the team, led by David Algire and assisted by Matthew Charlton and James Stairs remained undefeated. Every member of the team did his best. Special mention goes to James Stairs for his outstanding team spirit, and to Loren Sack for his "dramatic improvement", not to mention Andrew Touze's "Miami Tackle"!

ICE AGE

BANTAM HOCKEY

In the early 50's, Ogden Glass, the then Headmaster, initiated a hockey exchange with Deerfield, Massachusetts. This event was organized as a parallel to the historical levelling of Deerfield during the French Canadian-Indian wars. Many of the Indians involved in the battle were from this area giving reason for the link between B.C.S. and the small New England town. After several years, Deerfield expanded its hockey programme and proved to be more than a match for B.C.S. Consequently, Eaglebrook School (located in Deerfield) offered to host the exchange and it has now become a bantam hockey tradition. Like many other traditions at B.C.S., this one was included in the '86-'87 season's schedule.

"The Eaglebrook games were noted for their spirit of camaraderie." This remark made by Charlie Scott, the team's captain, is perhaps an adept way of summing up the team's attitude and personality. Mr. McDonald, the coach, stated that "Junior hockey, as with all junior sports, is a learning experience. In looking back on the season, skills have improved and that was our initial goal." The team did not win any big titles but they did bring home two victories in a row at the height of their season. Thanks are due to Mr. McDonald for working so well with so many and to the assistant coach Wally Zatylny. Least but not last, a thank you goes to Steve Kim and Mario Ianuzzi for all their help.

BANTAM HOCKEY First Row: S. Kersheh, C. Hamelin, T. MacInnes, G. Bock, J. Bishop, J. Downey, E. Bishop, H. Scott. Second Row: S. Kim (asst. coach), M. Ianuzzi (asst. coach), G. Cook, R. Tripp, D. Lascelles, P. Veillon, C. Scott (capt.), M. Lavigueur, B. Thomas, J. Foreman, J. Cloutier, Mr. MacDonald (coach).

Pee-Wee Hockey, this year captained by Phil Cote and David Algire, experienced an average season. It included a lot of team effort, although the team was never able to figure out what ballet had to do with hockey! They won a total of five games (three because their opponents did not show up) but on the whole, the team showed much improvement, especially Aaron Gilman and Nick Scheib.

Despite creases that lacked in seriousness, Mr. St.Jacques and his "hand-servant", Dr. Coleman never failed to show determination. Maybe next year the crowds won't be so overwhelming. It is important to note that the team had something in common with the NHL - they had the same number of players, 21 in all!

Senior Hockey First Row: G. Sherriffs (coach), T. Efraimidis (asst. capt.), A. Rivera, D. Tansey, S. Tinker (captain), D. MacDougall, J. Beatty, J. Kovach. Second Row: Mr. Cruickshank, C. Veillon, M. Lavigueur, R. MacLaren, C. Goodwin, K. Tinker, G. Lagden, B. MacDonald, B. Dooling, Mr. Goodwin (coach).

SENIOR HOCKEY

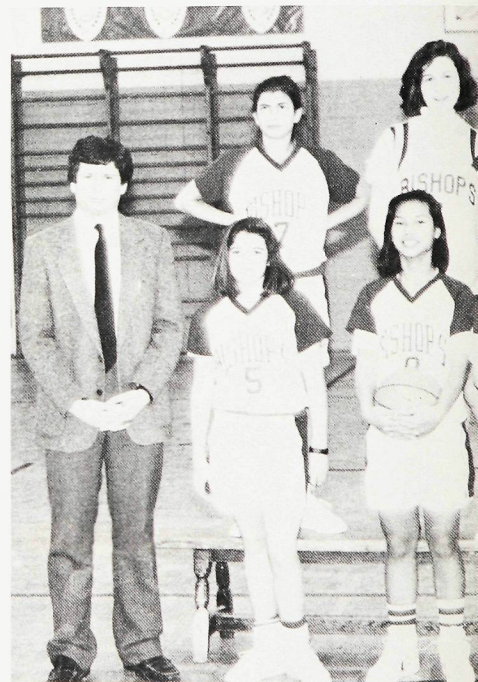

Senior Hockey, a real crowd pleaser, was the reason for so much cheering and chanting in the school rink this year. Third year member and Captain, Scott Tinker aided by assistant captain Themis Efraimidis, led the team to a commendable second place finish in the ETIAC league and championships.

Senior hockey was made up of various talented athletes, including: Themis Efraimidis, known for his hard hitting, Tom Goodwin and John Kovach for their hustle and determination, Dylan Tansey for his improvement toward the end of the season, John Beatty for his solid defence and finally, Scott Tinker for his smooth style and smelly clothes?!

When asked about the coaches, Scott replied, "We had a two coach system this year with Mr. Goodwin and Mr. Sherriffs. Their opposing styles of coaching had a good effect and were very successful." Lastly, when questioned about their future ambitions and goals for the crease everyone agreed that to beat Stanstead 25-0 and win the provincials and ETIAC's would be quite sufficient.

ALL KEYED UP

Senior Basketball First Row: Mr. Perrier (coach), D. Reimer (manager), K. Huband, L. Major, H. Hawketts, J. Newcombe, A. Lalonde, A. Welch, T. Stevens, C. Sykes, T. Neve (captain), W. Eizinger (manager), Mr. Cruickshank.

JUNIOR BASKETBALL

This year, junior basketball placed second in the B.C.S. invitational tournament. Captain Raquel Welch and assistant captain Mimi Rolland regard this victory as a group effort although some individuals should be mentioned. Cindy played a very important role as the team's top scorer, as well, Jennifer Trower deserves special commendation for her skill and hard work. Mimi's absence was a disappointment to the crease, however, When she was there she was a great player. Mr. Marlin, the team's coach, is described by the players as "a great guy, a geek, but an awesome one!". In retaliation to this somewhat disguised compliment, Mr. Marlin was quoted as saying "Raquel, a great captain, the person who I blame for everything!"

"Awesome! Some hard times but most good", when asked to sum up the team's atmosphere and attitude this was the answer given. Finally, understood by a select few are the following "in jokes":

- Josee's two hand dribble
- Backcourt Jen?
- Oh Sure!
- You're such a GEEK!
- Red underwear
- Did you bring your shoes everyone!

SENIOR BASKETBALL

Instead of the usual article the team has requested a 'player profile.' Beginning with four ex-juniors . . .

HELEN and her weird two handed shot, scrawny elbows and bruised knees.

LESLIE; lay up mania and quick feet!

TRACEY proved to be an excellent third guard, not the assumed post woman.

KATE, always busy, but when she could make time for the team she certainly gave of herself.

Continuing with the newcomers . . .

DANI from Deutchland became the team's emotional manager.

WENDY deserted Galt to become statician and defender.

ALEX began with the juniors but soon moved up the ranks and proved she was senior calibre.

And ending with the veterans . . .

ANN perfected the miken drill and with her expertise helped win the semi-finals.

CLAIRE took wild and panic-stricken shots that the team could have killed her for until, the swish was heard.

TONYA, the three year veteran, was a technically 'verbal' captain.

Last but not least . . .

Many thanks to Cindy for her awesome b-ball skills. Thanks Mr. Perrier even after all the ear aches and long tiring workouts which the team experienced you will remain at the top of the list for Uncle Bobs.

Junior Basketball First Row: Mr. Marlin (coach), L. Ellis, C. Toyota, K. Toffoli, A. McCall, J. Brodeur. Second Row: S. Menezes, J. Trower, S. MacLaren, M. Sethi, J. Neve, A. Donnachie. Missing: R. Welch (captain).

SPIKE AND SKATE

With the help of excellent snow conditions and a lot of hard work the cross-country ski team managed to skate, yes skate their way to a successful season. The long list of winning results include the capture of: the overall boys' ETIAC championship title, five out of six zone trophies (as members of the Eastern Townships' team), and twelve out of eighteen medals during the Independent Schools' Meet. Special mention goes to: Andrew Detchon; in a class of his own, Steve Stearns; first, both in the race and 'apres ski'(!) and Dominic Bradford for his fantastic results and sincere humility.

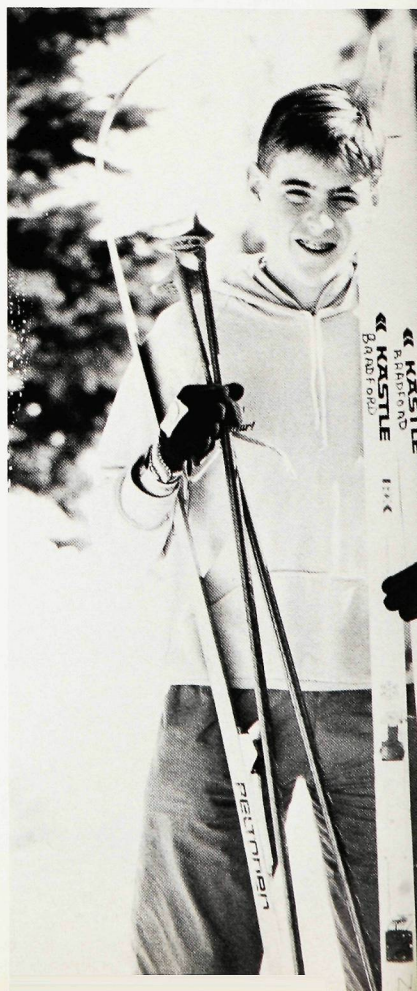

The four man team of Mr. D., Colm, the Maj. and Mr. Bradford provided the perfect combination of coaching and support, without which there would have been no wins. Many, many thanks for four great seasons!

Senior Volleyball First Row: Miss Lane (coach), N. Ishikawa, L. Edbrooke, K. Bishop, H. Nangle, P. Graham, C. Lavallee, M-H. Roberge, Mr. Cruickshank. Second Row: C. Giroux, B. Hillary, G. Provencher, L. Setlakwe, S. Sheehan (captain), J. Journeaux.

Cross-Country Competitive First Row: J. McGillivray, G. Kandalajt, A. Beaudoin, C. Fitzgerald, C. Mitchell, G. Fitzgerald, L. Hurre, C. Ellis, J. Ferguson, R. Roots. Second Row: A. Bradford (captain), F. McKellar, D. Bradford, D. Booth, F. Bertram (captain), M. Larochelle, P. LeBlond, A. Detchon, G. Bertram, M. Charlton. Third Row: Mr. Detchon (coach), S. Stearns, K. McGrath, Mr. Cruickshank, M. Nawar, A. Maclachlan, C. Coleman, A. Peet, B. Doan de Champassak, P. Verner, Major Turner (coach)

B.C.S.'s, shall we say, intimate gym is shared by many winter creases. Among those competing for practise time is Girls Volleyball. This year the captain, Sara Sheehan, and assistant captain Genvieve Provencher led the team to a first place finish at the Quebec High School Tournament. Their other away games included John Abbott and the Ashbury Tournament. Closer to home, they managed to reach the league semi-finals.

A team of individuals, each player had her own style. Perhaps a good example of this was the five-foot Naoko and her serve; the hardest on the team. As always, a great deal of thanks goes to the coach Miss Lane and to quote a member of the team: "we couldn't have done it without your 'Hurry up and take your time'". Future ambitions include acquiring their own uniforms (not those of senior soccer). And in the words of the volleyball player "BUMP, SET, SPIKE"!!

WHITE OUT

Squash First Row: M. Sims, D. Wolf, J. Thomas, T. Browne, I. Gray-Donald, K. Peacock, D. Major, J. N'Toutoume-Obame, P. Mihajlovic. Second Row: Mr. Cameron (coach), G. Welsford, T. Carter, K. Price, S. Webster (captain), S. Cofman, D. Manifi, S. Scholl, M. Bruneau, K. Graham, Mr. Trower (coach).

ALPINE SKIING

"One day we will all make the national team." Perhaps a rather large ambition, this year's alpine team, spurred on by their enthusiastic coach 'Nance', at least, gave the hills at Bromont a run for their money! The crease was captained this season by Marty Giroux and Lisa Setlakwe. Graham's sarcasm and Naran's table manners seemed to be important highlights in the team's personality. Another well-loved and remembered characteristic of the team was their 'nice' blue jackets but the motto "warmth before style" often came to mind when freezing at the top of the mountain. Special mention is due to Keir for being the first B.C.S. mascot.

Finally with all the nerve and presumptuousness of downhill skiers they begged this insert: "A little reminder to Mr. Detchon that this is the only real skiing there is." Editor's note: As copy editor and cross-country skier, I would like to remind the team of the dangers of false advertising!

Ian Grey Duck, Tim the Auzy (from Australia), B.B. McGrath and Steve "Pandamania" Domingue, all these bizzare and peculiar characters figured prominently on the squash crease this year. All kidding aside, captain Tara McGrath won the M.B.S.C. under 19 Invitational Tournament. The other captain, Sam Webster stated that squash "is a very physical and mentally demanding sport to play. It is not a game of brute strength, but of strategy."

Thanks are due to Monsieur Cameron and Mr. Trower. Members of the crease should never forget Sophie's squash films and duffle coats. Future ambitions include getting the courts swept and ultimately, new squash courts.

CURLING, I.H.A. AND CROSS-COUNTRY TOURING

Although not high profile creases or teams these three sports are still an essential part of the winter curriculum. Whether in the rink or the great outdoors, the members of these teams showed incredible spirit, humour and determination to have a great time.

Individually, each crease did their 'own thing' allowing them to stand out. Cross-country skiing competed in a Lake Megantic tour, I.H.A. honoured their beloved 'Detre the Doorman' and curling attempted to participate in the Dansville bonspiel (unfortunately age restrictions prevented them from doing so!) All in all, a successful and enjoyable season.

SENIOR RUGBY

"To put it bluntly, we thought that we could beat any Quebec schoolboy team in rugby and we could! We were all very high spirited and confident."

With this kind of positive, 'go get'em' attitude from the captain and vice captain; Tim Browne and Mike Fulford how could the team help but have a fantastic season. Throughout the entire season they remained undefeated and managed to capture the GMAA Juvenile Sevens trophy. The MacLeod Quaiach award for the most improved player went to Stephen Stearns and Rob Millyard trophy for the most spirited and consistent contribution to the team was given to Jason Breckanridge. Colours were awarded to a long list of thirteen players and in keeping with tradition, announced after the matches themselves.

As usual Mr. Common was a dominant force in the overall success of the team and his determination was an inspiration to many. One thing the team would appreciate in the future would be to allow eighteen year olds to play in the GMAA league. Never to be forgotten are the two expressions: "Sure hands Stearns" and "We can't all be like the Maradonna's, but we can sure have the determination of a John Beatty!"

Senior Rugby First Row: D. MacDougall, M. Carle, G. Van Kessel, J. Breckenridge, T. Brown, N. Leseigneur, J. Beatty, P. Bakos, D. Algire. Second Row: Y. Oshita, C. Oldland, B. McDonald, S. Stearns, M. Iannuzzi, J. Kovach, S. Scholl, M. Fulford, Mr. Common, M. Abouan, C. Coleman, J. Thomas, D. Clinton.

SURVIVAL OF THE FITTEST

JUNIOR RUGBY

This season was a rewarding one for the Junior Rugby crease. Captained by the humble Donald Booth and Steve Domingue, the team won five out of nine games, beating a touring team from Brentwood B.C., and placing third in the Riverdale Sevens. The attitude and drive of the team might, to an outsider have looked a little suspect; "maybe if we hide in the bus we might not have to play", but, in reality, when it came down to it, everyone gave 100%. It was a small team playing in a league of giants, but with such people as James Coleman, (what day is it porkchop?), "Huge", and Taka, (tape my head please) they persevered and often triumphed.

A special thanks goes to Mr. Dutton and Jason Macioige for coaching. Maybe next year they will get more than three spectators to watch their interesting brand of rugby!

Junior Rugby First Row: A. Abouon, J. Foreman, E. McInnes, M. Takayanagi, B. Thomas, S. Domingue, S. Stairs, R. Ndayahose, K. Peacock, D. Lascelles, M. Giroux. Second Row: J. Macioige, A. Touze, D. Ghattas, S. McGowan, P. Veillon, G. Welsford, H. Notman, D. Bradford, N. Oldland, D. Booth, J-C. Hamelin, J. Coleman, S. Ikeyama, N. Sundquist, M. Akkawi, J. Downey, Mr. Dutton.

Downey, T. Peacock, J. Stairs, T-L. Doan de Champassak, J. Stafford, P. Cote, B. Jones, G. Kandalafi, E. Lilford, K. Wells, L. Welch, S. McGowan, Mr. MacDonald.

BANTAM RUGBY

With six wins to only one loss this season the bantam rugby team had every right to be high spirited. Captain David Algire and vice captain David Major led the team to victory over L.C.C. (only the second time in seven years) and to win the bantam sevens tournament.

Special mention goes to Steve McGowan who scored six tries in three games and David Major who rewarded the team with five tries in one match. Also the team expressed their appreciation and gratitude to Mr. Slocombe, Mr. MacDonald and Mr. Common for all their hard work and dedication.

A few choice expressions to be remembered:

- Oh no, not conditioning!
- Run Jeremy!
- Psst. Ewan's mother was a gazelle.

ADVENTURE TRAINING

Who has climbed three mountains, hiked almost 900 miles, paddled a rapid river, surmounted rockfaces, experienced countless solos and swung from trees on Tarzan ropes? The answer: everyone; everyone that is who belonged to Adventure Training. A crease made up of different ages, sexes and tastes, A.T. accomplished many personal as well as group goals. A great deal of thanks is due to Charles, Col. Potter, Mr. Jansen and Jane. (Aww isn't that cute!) A crease suited perfectly to the mass production of inside jokes, will never be allowed to forget the likes of M.A.S.H., 'goin' to the zoo', jerky anyone? No sausage!

TRACK AND FIELD

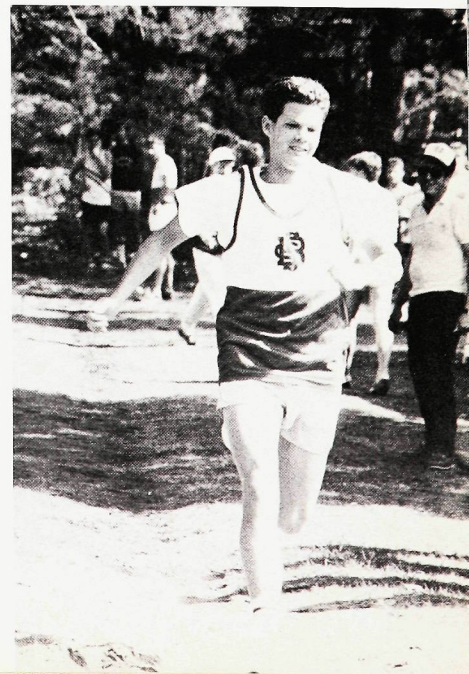

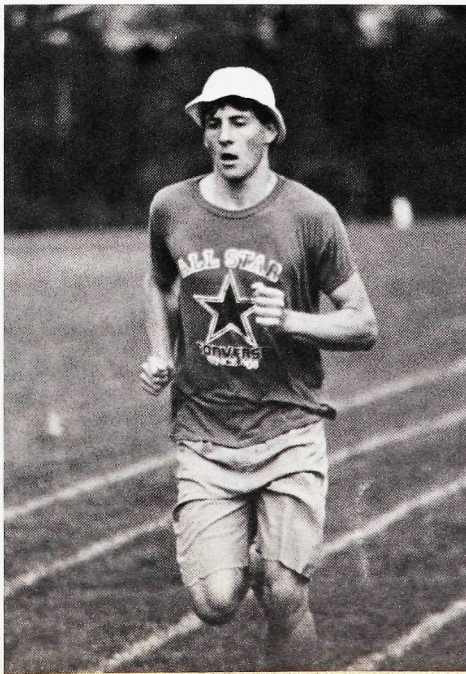

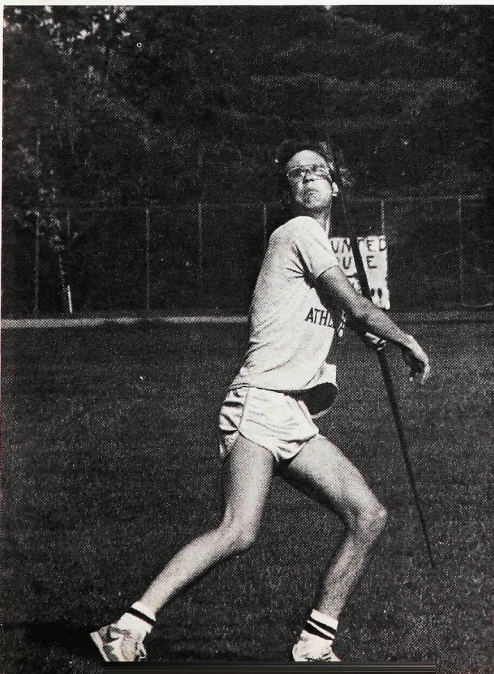

Andrew Detchon swimming on center field, Vince's Birthday party (shaving cream and mud fights), cries of "Wake up Dino you have to run!", and Dr. Bob's stomach exercises. Is this a practical joker's crease, a clinic for weight loss or an aquatics programme? No, it's track and field! A successful season all round, the team managed to win the Senior Boys Division at both the Richmond meet and the ETIAC's, second place overall at the Stanstead meet and third overall at the ETIAC's. Several members qualified for the Zones and Fern Turpin, Jen McGillvary and Fraser Bertram progressed on to compete in the Provincials.

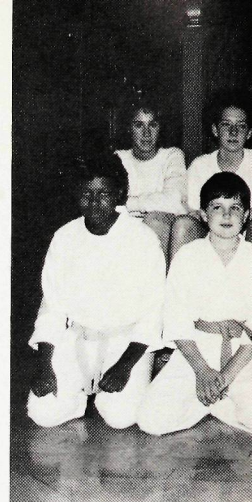

Important members of this large team who should be recognized include Sara Sheehan for her spirit, encouragement and improvement, Andy Peet for his great Welsh spirit and the Open Boys Medley team for remaining undefeated. Much thanks, due to their encouragement, patience and effort, goes to Mr. Perrier, Mr. Marlin and Miss. Harding. The crease hopes in the future to clean-up at the Stanstead meet, qualify the whole team for the Provincials and build a track that doesn't turn into an instant cross-country mud bath every time it rains.

For those who are leaving wise words of advice from Mr. Marlin go with them: "When on a desertion run and you encounter a dog, first bark back then kick them!" Lastly, memories of Rocket Robert Perrier's idea of a mile will live in every long distance runner's heart forever.

PARTICIPATION

Although a non-competitive crease Participation worked hard to stay in shape and keep up with Jane Fonda. Co-coaches Julie Mahfood and Diane McMaster specifically mentioned Sophie Vydakhan's enthusiasm, and Kelly Raymond and Naoko Ishikawa's fantastic effort. The crease atmosphere was quoted as being "Friendly, casual, relaxed but most of all fun." Much thanks is due to Mrs. Peacock, Mrs. Coleman, Mlle. Mesnil, Mme. MacKnish and Mme. Fleury.

KARATE

Karate is a reasonably new addition to B.C.S. but despite this it has proved very successful. Chris Enright, the master described by his students as "an amazing guy" works hard to encourage the serious but high spirited nature of the crease. The members of the crease follow the Japanese tradition of kneeling and meditating before the beginning of each class and this helps to improve their group spirit. Led by their captain Aaron Gilman and assistant captains Crispin McBurney and Shu-Chi Wu this band of individuals are interested in passing their belts and finding a new Do-jo! Special mention is due to Aaron Gilman who won first place in class sparing, Charly Chen, Simon Chen and Brian Ho for being the best white belt starters and Melanie St-James for her great effort.

When asked what the future ambitions or goals were for the crease they answered simply "TOTAL DOMINATION OF THE WORLD!"

SOFTBALL

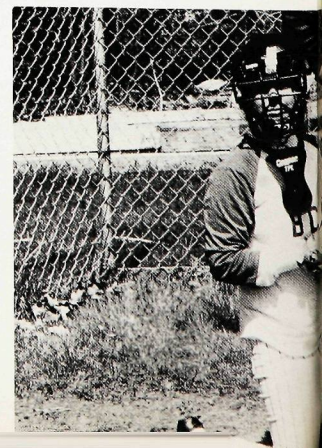

This spring, the softball team overcame a lengthy winless streak by beating two teams. Under the leadership of Leanne Clark and Tonya Neve (co-captains), the softball team metamorphosed into a powerful offensive machine. This year's team will be remembered for their improvement, enthusiasm and spirit.

Special thanks go to Mr. Detchon and Miss Lane for their much needed support and Mr. Sheriffs for doing an excellent coaching job.

Quotes to be remembered:

- "I can't believe I'm related to that girl."
- "Jen, that's the way to use your head!"
- "Amy, try not to trip next time!"
- "Kate and Bert, next time open your eyes before catching the ball."

Softball First Row: D. McMaster, J. Neve, A. Donachie, N. Ishikawa, R. Brascoupe, T. Neve (capt.), A. Welch, K. Bishop, A. Heenan. Second Row: Miss Lane (coach), F. Vesce, J. Journeaux, K. McCrory, R. Halpenny, K. Huband, L. Mowry, L. Clark (capt.), R. Welch, Mr. Sherriffs (coach), Mr. Detchon (coach).

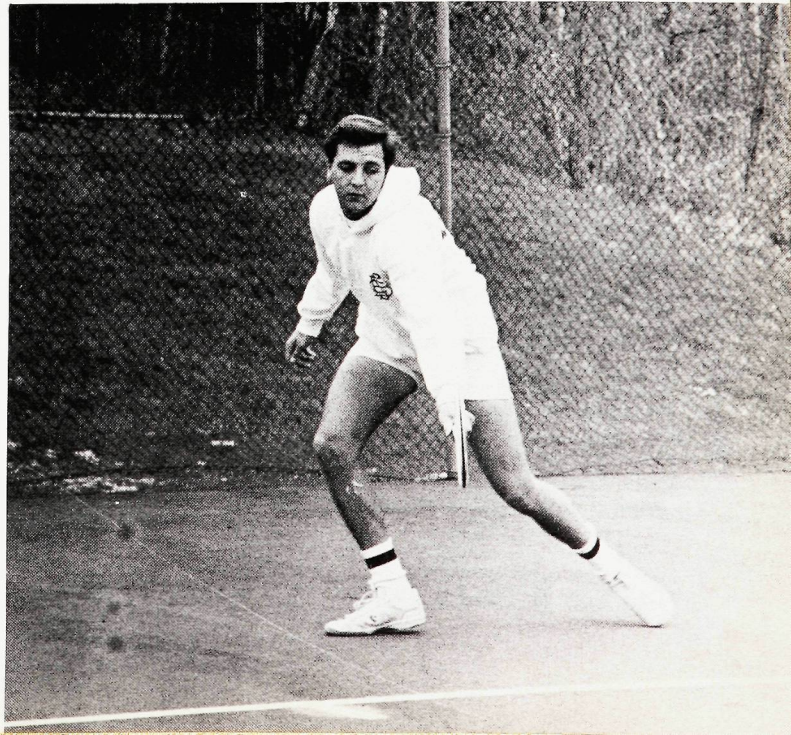

TENNIS

"Bouncy tennis balls!", "The Wind",
"Flies on the net!"

Tennis First Row: J. Newcombe, A. Beaudoin, J. Deslongchamps, L. Gallery, L. MacDougall, S. Hackett, A. Johnston, J. Bishop, P. Jalbert, A. Rivera, H. Scott. Second Row: T. Calder, C. Sykes, M. Rolland, S. Cofman, C. Scott, D. Wright, S. Webster, A. Yanow (capt.), T. Deichmann, A. Detre, L. Carter, T. Masakazu, P. Gaudreau, T. McGrath (capt.), Mr. Peacock (coach). Missing - Mrs. Peacock (coach).

Yes, it is the tennis crease! Under the leadership of Adam Yanow and Tara McGrath, this year's tennis crease experienced a successful year by beating Stanstead, Massey Vanier and winning the E.T.I.A.C. championship. The efforts of Timon Deichmann and organization of Mr. and Mrs. Peacock combined for what will be no longer "a country club crease" but a competitive sport.

GYMNASTICS

The B.C.S. gymnastics team this year was only formed up of 9 or 10 people. Despite the number, they enjoyed themselves. Supervised by Miss Harding, Mark, and occasionally Mr. Sakamoto, the budding gymnasts attempted to improve their skills on the floor, the uneven bars, the mini tramp and even the box. Miss Harding hopes to be able to replace the beam next year and then the floor mats etc . . .

The atmosphere was very relaxed and the team will keep many memories such as knee-to-shoulder balancing and fistfuls of hair! Kirsten Bishop mastered the branny and roundoff in midair, and Eric Steinman managed to perform a roundoff-back-handspring.

Gymnastics Kneeling: E. Steinman. First Row: Mr. Sakamoto (coach), A. McCall, L. Antipass, K. Bishop, K. Hallward, B. Fitzgerald, M. Baton (coach). Second Row: K. Jackson, S. Hackett. Third Row: J. Toyota.

BADMINTON

Being the only crease that demanded the use of the gym, this group of individuals tended to hold low profiles in the athletic ranks of B.C.S. Unbeknown to many however, this crease was highly competitive amongst its own members. In the round robin ladder, Jasmine placed first in group A followed by Angela in second. In group B, Brice worked hard to finish second only to Travis - the first place finisher! Although not in the top two or three, special mention goes to Josee for beating Thomas Degremont and to Ian for beating Brian Ho.

"Well we had a good time anyway . . .", seems to be the crease's favourite phrase or at least that's what a little birdie told me! Much thanks to Mr. Brass and Mr. Bedard, perhaps in the future the team could compete in real tournaments.

EASY LIFE

INSTRUCTIONAL SQUASH

"Practice, practice and more practice!"

The crease was characterized by a friendly, informal and patiently enthusiastic atmosphere. Perhaps this result was due to the efforts of Audrey Lemieux, Sasha Menezes as well as Mr. Trower. Players such as: Martine Bordeleau, Kate Hallward, Lisa Hurre, Annabelle McCall, Lisa Starkman and Eric Brand are all recommended to try out for next year's team.

Congratulations go to Penny Goodwin and Pippa Hett for overcoming the 'squeaking disease'. In the immortal words of Mr. Trower: "All that play and no work."

PIONEERING

The varsity gardening team, one of the less prominent yet essential creases at B.C.S., contributed a significant amount of 'green-thumb action' to the campus. Craig McCutcheon and Mrs. Hawkets stressed the selectiveness of the team's membership when they stated: "You can't join, you have to be invited."

Using money from the 150th committee the duo dug deep to produce two new flower boxes by the entrance and tennis courts. The crease wishes to thank Jane and Mr. Hawkets and of course Ali and Weston.

AT THE CLUB

Golf First Row: Mr. Evans (coach), G. Cook, G. Lagden, K. Tinker, C. Goodwin, S. Tinker.

Horsemanship First Row: L. Carvalhal, S. Hett, J. Ferguson. Second Row: G. Lavigueur, S. Lydiatt, S. Wu. Third Row: A. Vickers, Mrs. Coleman (coach), S. Crudo.

CYCLING

The cycling crease was headed by an intrepid band of fearless leaders. Coaches include: Col. Strickland, Nancy Gillies, Mark Batton, Jane Hawkets and Claude. One wonders if there were actually any B.C.S. students in the group.

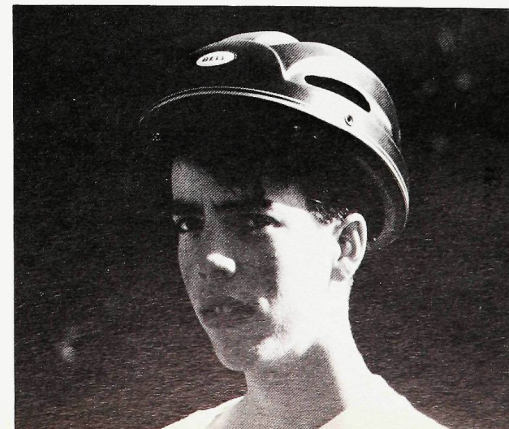

It was a non-competitive crease but they did complete four and five time trials; one of ten miles and the other, mere five milers. The team also experienced an overnight expedition to Wilvaken and a sixty-mile trip to Stanstead.

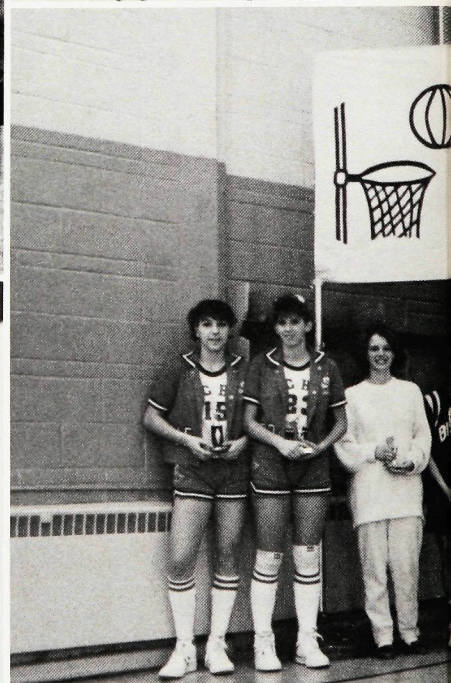

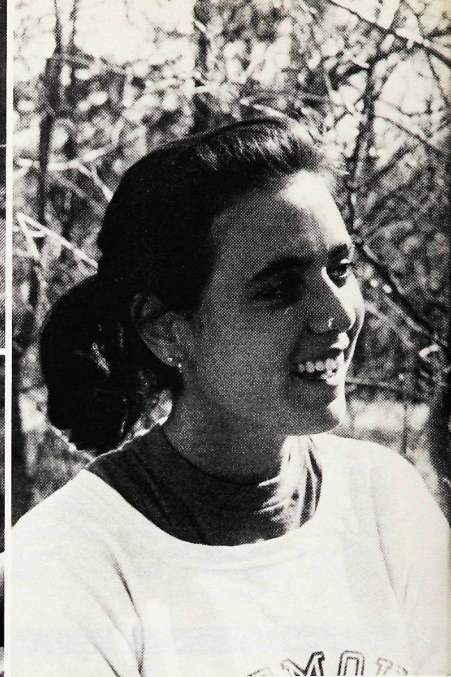

Samara Brushett is remembered for her determination to keep truckin' and at the same time being supportive and cheering on others.

Expressions to be remembered:

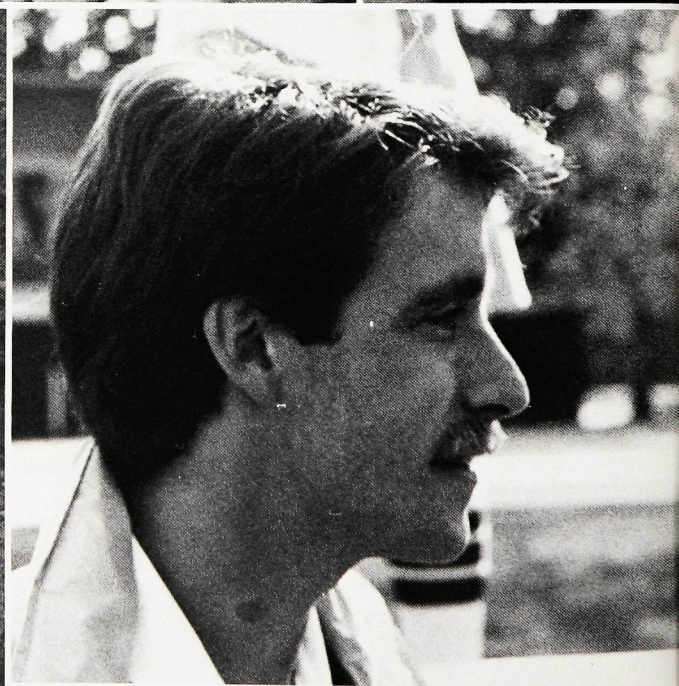

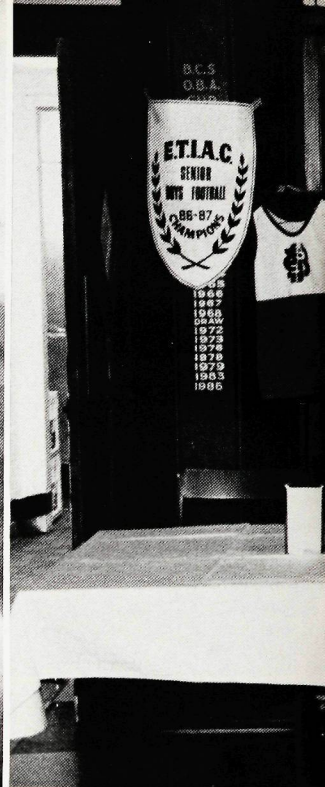

- SPIN!
- Cuts like butter.
- Just one hill.
- BELVEDERE
- and in the immortal words of the cyclist:
"Despite knees, backs and necks, we continue on!"

Cycling First Row: M. Lavigneur, M. Einhorn, B. Hillary, B. Fitzgerald, F. McKeller, C. Giroux. Second Row: H. Tomicic, S. MacInnes, S. Brushett, G. Fitzgerald, C. Fitzgerald, C. Peter Bakos, top right

Peter Bakos was known as an intimate rebel. He received his fame when he became M.V.B. (Most Valuable Bench Warmer) of Senior Soccer. Always remember us, because we'll forget about you (joke). Good Luck in the future, and don't forget Pete, "Fire in the belly, magic in the feet"

Baudine la, if we could all be like you, the world would be a better place! BA-HA! You've brought new meaning to the word, "Westmounter"! Starve the farmers Oh, do they have rights too?? We've had many a deep conv. over diet Cokes . . . GEORGE! So take it all off baby (in center field). Grad, champagne and strawberries and parking lots . . . "Je me souviens." When we get together in 20 years you'll have to fill us in on what's happening in our lives. GOSSIP SESSION! We'll always love you Bauds. Don't forget it! T.S., L.S., A.J.

"Is not absence death to those who love?" Alexander Pope
"You DON'T understand!" . . . the depressions, the lying in the dark snow in center field, the wanting to turn left instead of right, the purple outings, the 5 month intervals, the bonfire hanging from the ceiling, the 'beauty' of my green jacket . . . and . . . Amanda, it was only FOUR! (Cafe A Tout '86) . . . well, maybe you did understand . . .

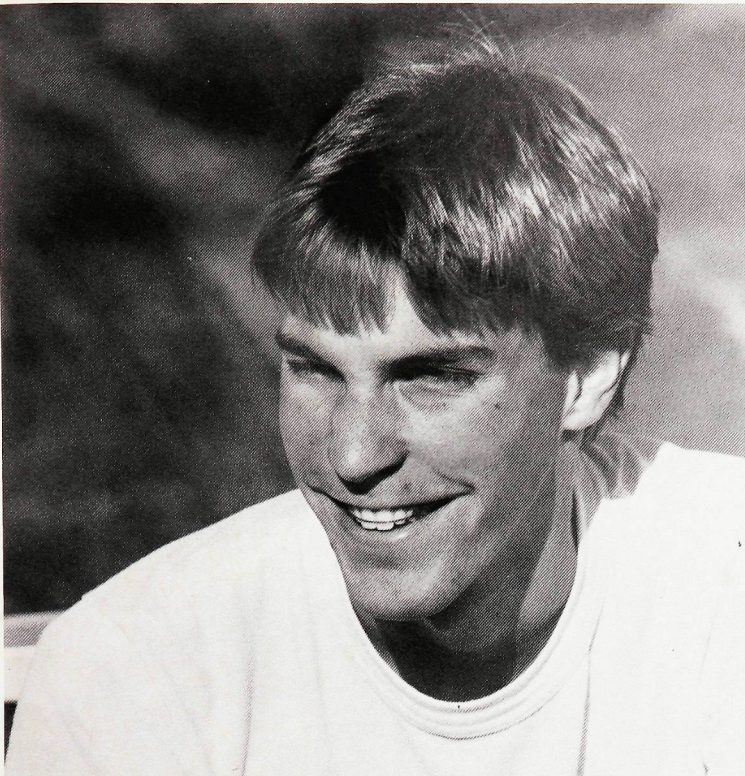

Thanks Guys - XOXO AMB

Fraser Bertram, bottom right

Looking back on the six memorable and active years I have spent at B.C.S., I feel my attitude and experiences are best summed up with the words: "If you want to get somewhere else, you must run at least twice as fast". I have learned to run that bit faster both figuratively and literally. B.C.S. has given me many challenges, both mental and physical. Thanks to everyone who has helped me complete the run.

Petrena Both

Queen of Pink Slippers trudged through the seemingly endless year, with her favourite Pepper roommate. She's movin' out of the Bay, eh? and hitting Western. The ski bunny-lifeguard set academic records in our house. A devout member of the S.D.'s forever, right? Lust list #2 fixed that though. She'll always be remembered for twists and tunes in the top corner of Glass- catch ya . . . at Old Boy's '89!

Our revels now are ended. These our actors,
As I foretold you, were all spirits and
Are melted into air, into thin air:
And, like the baseless fabric of this vision,
The cloud-capp'd towers, the gorgeous palaces,
The solemn temples, the great globe itself,
Yea, all which it inherits, shall dissolve,
And, like this insubstantial pageant faded,
Leave not a rack behind. We are such stuff
As dreams are made on; and our little life
Is rounded with a sleep.

Oakville/T.O. (yes, but where do you live?), Bermuda (waterlogged windsurfers anyone?), the middle of nowhere, and then Bishop's. Remember those blissful English classes (P.E. and the U.F.O.'s), E.B. whose knuckles dragged on the floor, and that awesome tennis. Ah, the good ol' days.

GIDDAY MATE . . . I was an Aussie sent over from OZ to disrupt the whole B.C.S. system. I tried poisoning some people with VEGEMITE (ahh Tink) but that failed. So I sat next to Amanda in Math's & kept getting her into trouble (THAT WORKED). What a bum I was (19 spares, 17 classes) . . . They even gave me life membership to the library (Glass House should have too, ahh Lisa). Well Glass & North, go to PEEL, sink some GROG, & see you in . . . OZ.

What a year it's been, the first time over the Atlantic for this young man. Who thrilled soccer fans with his brilliant play and devious tactics? Big Bird as he was affectionately known around Chapman, skied like a true Brit and dumfounded his mates. What the future holds no-one knows, but I'm sure it will be full of happiness and success. So farewell from the Great White North and Mr. Canoehead. T.C.

Keir Peschlow

Sharp contrast - Black on White - Hot on Cold. Who was that man in black? Man . . . or bat or . . . Keir Hot Hot Hot on White on Cold on Black. Full moon is wolf-howled - a Ninja call in White - on Black - is Hot in Cold. Victims scream, are laughed at. Centre - snap is Hot - Hot in White (in purple?) In sinister sneer. We love you, Keir?

This has been the best year of my life! (ha, ha!). Loud roomie, irritating neighbors, and animals include many of her pet peeves. Ottawa Extravaganza!! Ultimate depression, ecstatic laughter. We talked a lot, during Physics and during "Participation", we daydreamed during Chemistry; in one word we had fun! My years here have ended and a new society awaits me. My time with the school, in academics, sports and social events will always remain in my memory. Great times with friends block out any bad time I went through. Thanks to the second form gang, including Thane, for making these past five years quite exciting and profound. The Rebels will meet again and will always roam the school campus.

Choi Wai Chan

He is a new student at BCS, but he never shows whether he enjoys the school or not? He is quite an odd person. "Don't bother" and "I'm not interested" are his opinions to almost everything that is not compulsory. I have known him for a long time, but I still have not much idea of what he is interested in. The only entertainments he has is probably only Friday night movies and Saturday morning cartoons. He always takes everything so seriously that I worry he may become insane someday.

David Clinton

In my fifth year here, I would like to make a sane observation. All those who remain here, for three or more years are insane. Therefore I conclude that I don't know what I am saying, so everything I stated previously must be complete gibberish.

Alex Detre

Alex, came to the school in 83, since then, he learned how to be a real man. Through the years, I learned how to understand Alex's life. He took more care about his clothes than academics. The only problem with Alex is, we do not know who he really is. One day he could be Sony Crocket (MIAMI VICE) and the next day he could be, just Alex. The kid has been a super athlete. (JUST JOKING) He also helped in stage work. Well Alex, I will miss you, but I will never forget you. (Our life was a DYNASTY)

Julie Toyota

Funny how fast two years can pass away, especially when I remember so clearly that first day. How quickly things change. Remember: forever waiting for Tencer - each morning, snowball fights at odd hours of the night, strange Aussies! forever discussing the incomprehensible realm of men, and the walks!!! However many of your friends come and go, never forget us - Juls. You'll be missed more than you'll ever know.

Love always Anne, and Katie

Dave Trower

It can't be, it can't be! I don't understand him. He's crazy. It's O.K. Dave, don't worry about it. Finish your french? Finish your Chem.? Dave? Conscientious? Absolutely! How about a game of twenty-one? I'll kill you! Is that a joke. An unknown pirate once said: "We don't seem to make privacy pay!" Gotcha! Two for flinching!

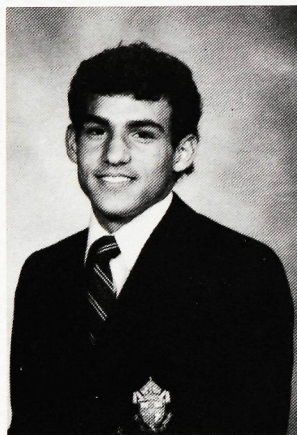

S. Kim

Fern Turpin

We have quite the room here. Posters, pictures, music, and memories . . . 3 am no work nights, zombie school days, 1 am gab sessions. Crazy? Ha! There were great times: Football (My penalty, your loss), the play, what else? But Hey! There's still the spring. What can we say? You're definitely hurting . . . Me? Too late. Be free Fern. Run away . . . like the wind. Dance the night away. But don't forget to look back and remember.

ANDY

Thanks, you are the best big bro ever.

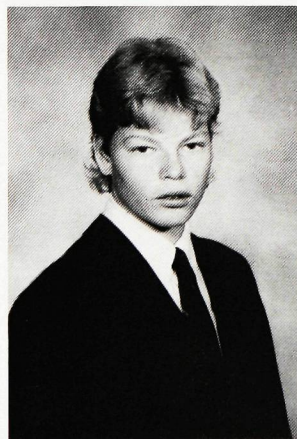

Gideon Van Kessel

Good Looking! Hey, Aruba Man. How's my main man? You like! How about a Heineken. How's Aruba - still there? Remember St. Maarten last summer. You were a great guy to be friends with - the best! Gid, get a job. You were a good lineman during football season, a future hockey player and a great party animal! Remember your Prelude - well don't lend it to anyone anymore, okay?!

Take it easy,

Mario

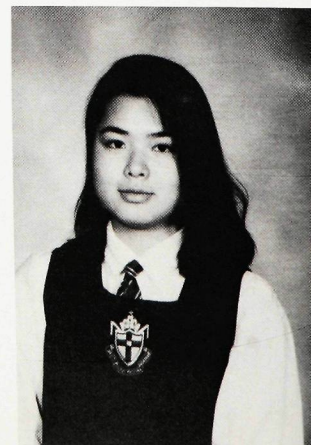

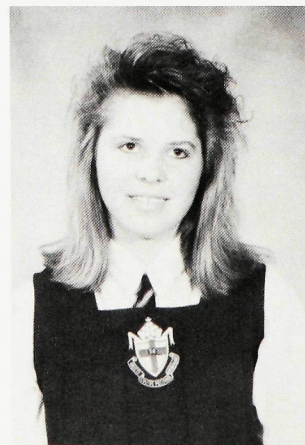

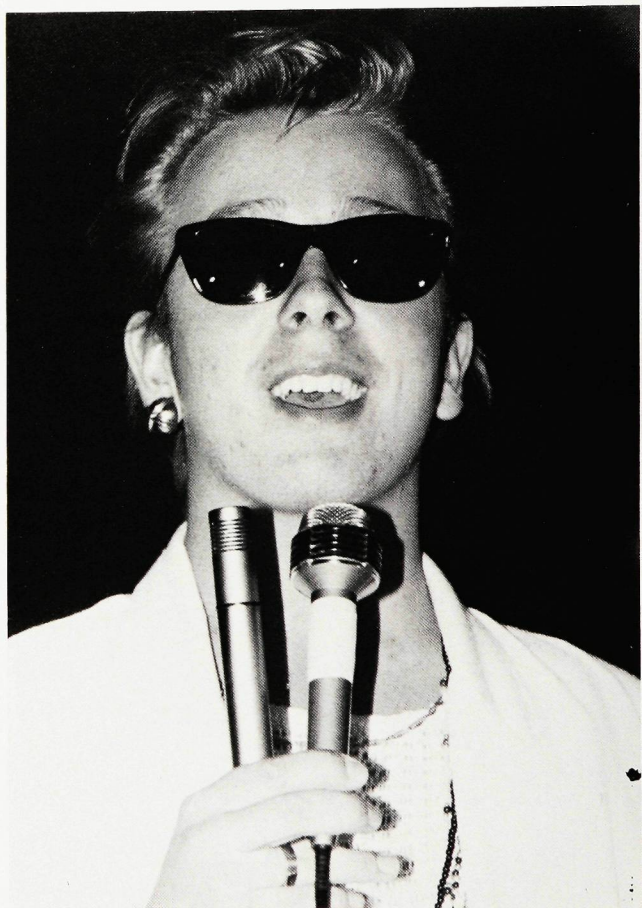

Sophie Vidykhan:

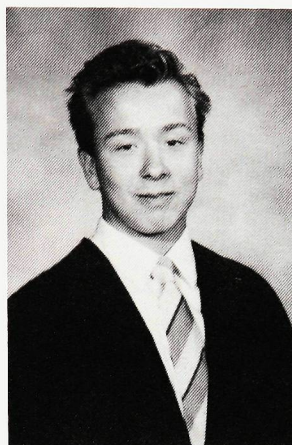

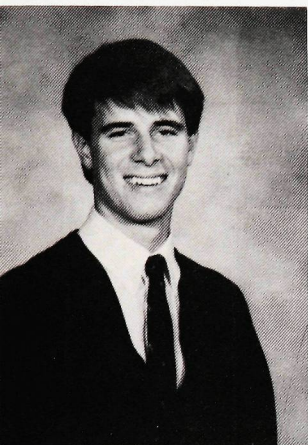

Well, my grosse criss, on va aller au plage, manger du fromage and maybe une gorgée de bière that is if your stomach can take it. Sophie is the queen of participation because of her fear of double chins and double love handles. What's that white stuff on your face? it smells like toothpaste. Perhaps what you need is a trip to the ortho but watch out (Enal) is behind you. We'll even miss Annabell.

Adieu,

The Disciples

Tamae Wada

Friso Westenberg

Who is this weirdo who rolled in from Kingston? Despite first impressions, Friso turned out to be a great guy . . . Remember these: Your friendship (?) with Lew . . . The Titty Committee . . . Vast Immaturity (Mr. B) Opus & Bill for ever . . . The many strange incidents, ie Being hit by a wandering Brown Cow. (Can't think where it came from). Never fear, Freeze, it's everyone else who is crazy!! Just hang in there and don't ever change.

ROY

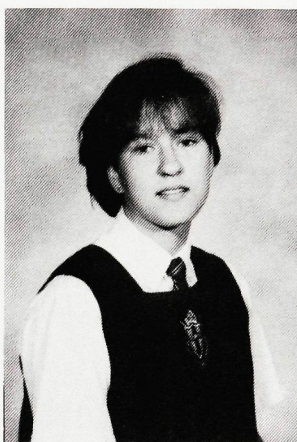

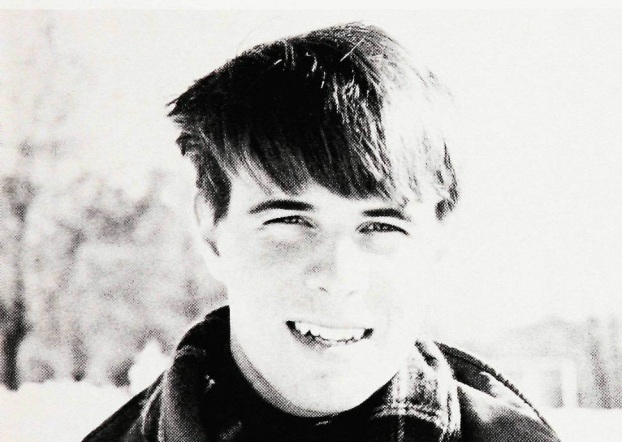

P.S. DON'T FORGET: the mad were once considered divinely inspired.

Derrick Wolf

Derrick arrived in 2nd. form bringing with him literature that his new buddies had never seen before. He even stuck his foot into drama showing off his swash-buckling techniques. As years went by he matured and began seriously modifying his hair. He even has a dance named after him, "The Derrick Shuffle."

Derrick, thanks for showing us the way and we won't forget the in depth talks at Jay Pee and S.S. and the leisurely lunches at the Lion.

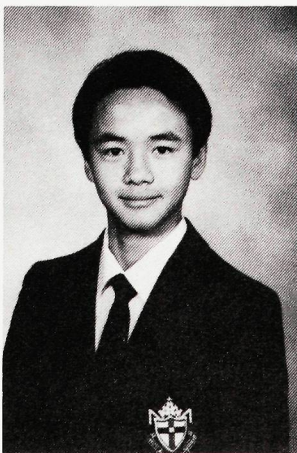

Tom & Roy

Helga Wolf:

Helgie we've got to give you credit for being here since second form. You deserve a medal or would you rather have a chest to put it on. Sexy Cindy - Miss Snowflake '86 must have been on a manhunt to bat her "Beatty" little eyes at that Scottish bloke. She may be short but does she ever clear 'em out. O.K., no more meetings, popcorn, predictions, or past - not here. Where's the cash bar? We'll moon Europe! It's lights out. Are we almost there Pappa Smurf? Yes Helg, almost!

Love and miss you forever,
The Disciples . . .

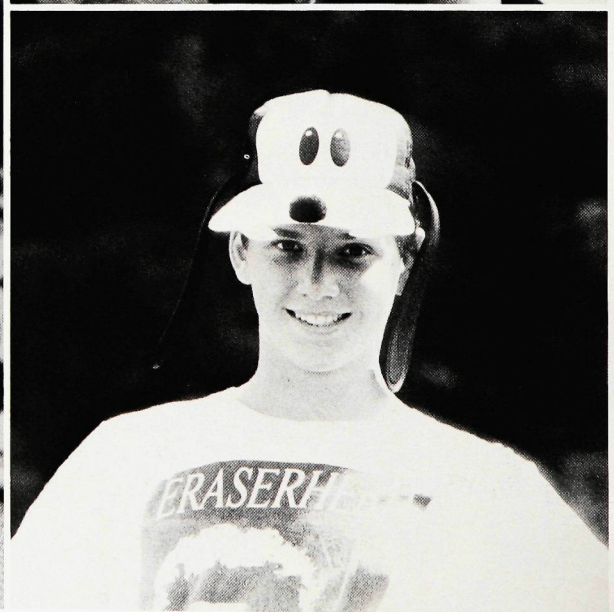

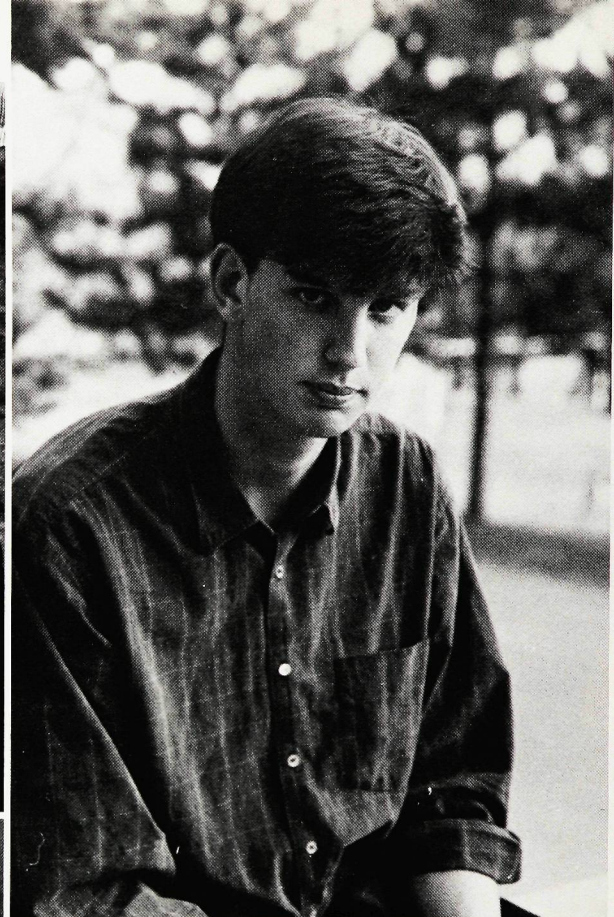

Paul Wu

How's my little man from Taiwan? You always come up with the best looking hairstyles! How's your bodybuilding coming along? Have you taken any steroids to be so big? Sometimes I wonder if you ever get out of that chemistry lab. You were always there to listen when I had a problem, and that I appreciated a lot. You once told me that you hated long term relationships, remember? Well, your wife better be perfect or else . . . !

Take it easy,
Mario
